

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XLIV.—No. 241.

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 28, 1915.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

CHICAGO DEATH LIST NOW 1,336

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Chicago, July 28.—A revision of the list of missing compiled by the Western Electric Company today showed that 507 persons who went on board the steamer Eastland last Saturday were unaccounted for. There were 824 identified bodies listed at the Second regiment army morgue, and five unidentified dead remained in the armory. The total number of possible dead today was 1,336.

Today was a day of general mourning in Chicago. Set apart by Mayor Thompson in a proclamation as a day for public sorrow over the loss of probably 1,336 lives on the steamer Eastland in the Chicago river last Saturday, it was observed by the closing of all city offices and scores of business houses.

As a driving rain, hundreds of funeral processions made their way through the city's streets. Every house in Chicago was in use and many bodies had to be carted to the burning grounds in auto-trucks, wagons, automobiles and carriages.

In compliance with Mayor Thompson's request there were no professional games of baseball in Chicago today. The Cubs-Giants National League and the Whales-Buffalo Federal League receipts were called off. Tomorrow the receipts at the Federal League Park will be given to the million dollar relief fund being raised for Eastland sufferers.

As hundreds of homes were the settings for solemn funeral services, the grim hand of the law continued to grapple with the evidence about those deemed responsible for the loss of the hundreds of souls. W. K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana Transportation Company, was under arrest, guarded in a northside hotel by detectives. State's Attorney Hoyne promised more arrests of high officials on the boat line involved in the ownership and operation of the Eastland, and stated that today indictments would be voted by the grand jury charging manslaughter or conspiracy to overboard the steamer.

Plans went forward today for the raising of the sunken hull of the steamer, which is believed to hide the fate of possibly 507 persons who are missing according to the latest revision of figures by the Western Electric Company officials. The official reports today contained the names of 824 identified dead. There were five unidentified bodies in the Second regiment army morgue. Adding these to the missing, it was figured that the probable total death toll of the tragedy would be 1,336.

While police, firemen, divers and volunteer workmen labored about the sunken vessel, a high board fence shielded them from the gaze of the curious.

The special federal grand jury ordered by Federal Judge Laddis was ready to begin its part of the Eastland investigation tomorrow morning. With Secretary of Commerce Redfield in personal charge of the government's inquiry, and with the county grand jury pledged to turn all its evidence over to the federal authorities, concrete results were predicted as the result of the activity of Mr. Redfield and his aids.

The hunt of the divers working on the hull of the Eastland was interrupted today while the crew of the wrecking ship favorite of Cleveland, anchored alongside the Eastland, made preliminary arrangements to right the overturned ship. Wreckers estimated that it would be many days, possibly two weeks, before the Eastland could be turned far enough to permit a thorough search for the dead who are believed to be held inside the hull.

Scores of the Eastland hull and the river near by all day yesterday yielded only four additional bodies.

MAJORITY VERDICT BEING CONSIDERED

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Albany, July 28.—The importance of the subject warranting a most careful investigation, the committee on judiciary of the constitutional convention has named a sub-committee to go deep into the question of whether the jury system should be changed and less than twelve jurors render a verdict. This sub-committee is to report back next week.

There are many attorneys and laymen in the state who believe that the old rule of unanimity in verdicts should be abolished in the interest of justice and common sense and also in the interest of advanced methods of legal administration.

Since the proposed amendment providing for verdicts from three-fourths of a jury was introduced the judiciary committee has received innumerable briefs and letters bearing upon the subject. One of the salient features touched upon is that trials by jury should not fall or a miscarriage of justice occur because of the death, illness or stubbornness of a single juror. The point has been urged that the old reason for unanimity has lost its force or jurisdiction and that the state of New York in its progress should now adopt a more modern idea.

It is argued by certain of the delegates to the convention that since the jury system in New York state is the gravest of the law continued to grapple with the evidence about those deemed responsible for the loss of the hundreds of souls. W. K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana Transportation Company, was under arrest, guarded in a northside hotel by detectives. State's Attorney Hoyne promised more arrests of high officials on the boat line involved in the ownership and operation of the Eastland, and stated that today indictments would be voted by the grand jury charging manslaughter or conspiracy to overboard the steamer.

Plans went forward today for the raising of the sunken hull of the steamer, which is believed to hide the fate of possibly 507 persons who are missing according to the latest revision of figures by the Western Electric Company officials. The official reports today contained the names of 824 identified dead. There were five unidentified bodies in the Second regiment army morgue. Adding these to the missing, it was figured that the probable total death toll of the tragedy would be 1,336.

While police, firemen, divers and volunteer workmen labored about the sunken vessel, a high board fence shielded them from the gaze of the curious.

The special federal grand jury ordered by Federal Judge Laddis was ready to begin its part of the Eastland investigation tomorrow morning. With Secretary of Commerce Redfield in personal charge of the government's inquiry, and with the county grand jury pledged to turn all its evidence over to the federal authorities, concrete results were predicted as the result of the activity of Mr. Redfield and his aids.

The hunt of the divers working on the hull of the Eastland was interrupted today while the crew of the wrecking ship favorite of Cleveland, anchored alongside the Eastland, made preliminary arrangements to right the overturned ship. Wreckers estimated that it would be many days, possibly two weeks, before the Eastland could be turned far enough to permit a thorough search for the dead who are believed to be held inside the hull.

Scores of the Eastland hull and the river near by all day yesterday yielded only four additional bodies.

While police, firemen, divers and volunteer workmen labored about the sunken vessel, a high board fence shielded them from the gaze of the curious.

LEELANAW CAPTAIN MAKES FULL REPORT

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Aberdeen, Scotland, July 28.—The official story of the destruction of the American submarine Leelanaw by a German submarine in the North Sea on Sunday was told to William P. Quinn, the United States consul, today, by Eugene Delk, captain of the destroyed steamer.

The chief features of Captain Delk's story were these:

1.—That plenty of warning was given to the Leelanaw and that the crew was given all the time necessary to leave the vessel before it was attacked.

2.—That the crew of the German submarine treated the seamen of the Leelanaw with kindness and courtesy, supplying them with food.

3.—The captain of the submarine declared that he could not spare the Leelanaw because he had not been in the habit of jettisoning contraband cargoes.

4.—After the Leelanaw's crew had left their ship the Germans fired shells into her but this method proving too slow they discharged a torpedo against her. The American ship was burning when she went down.

5.—Most of the seamen on the submarine could speak excellent English and seemed to have been residents of the United States before the war broke out.

The vessel which brought the Leelanaw's crew to port brought also the crews of the ships Grangebrook and Rubina, which had been sunk by German submarines at sea.

"We were about 65 miles northwest of the Orkney Islands on Sunday afternoon when I observed two steamers to the southward," said Captain Delk. "While watching them I heard a shot and upon looking closer I saw a submarine lying on the surface of the sea."

"Almost immediately one of the two ships which I observed to be of British nationality, began to settle. The submarine then made off toward the other merchantman and I heard another shot. The Germans' attention to the second ship was short lived, however, for just then the commander of the submarine made me a signal for me to make off in our direction."

"My first thought was to seek safety in flight and after altering my course I ordered full steam ahead. The submarine put on all her speed and the chase was on. The German boat was a very swift one and made headway. When she saw we were going to make a run for it a shot was fired, but it fell about 300 yards short. I then put my helm down hard and the Leelanaw slewed around until her nose pointed toward the submarine."

"The submarine continued in our direction and sent up a signal ordering me to send my papers on board. I did so and the German commander studied them carefully. He discovered that I was bound from Archangel to Belfast with a cargo of wax and he then sent up another signal ordering us to leave the ship immediately. Then a small boat left the submarine and when it was within hailing distance an officer shouted in good English: 'Take your time but get all your crew into the boats. Get together as many of your personal effects as possible and then row away from your ship.'"

"The German said we would be carried toward the main land of the Orkneys in the submarine. We obeyed orders, getting into our small boats as quickly as possible, at the same time carrying as many of our personal belongings as we could get together. When we had rowed off for some distance the submarine fired five shots into the hull of the Leelanaw on the starboard side and the vessel still reared aloft as all struck above the water line."

"Upon seeing this the German commander fired a torpedo which struck the vessel amidship. She immediately began to go down, but to make a good job of it two more shots were fired, the last setting the ship on fire."

"We were then taken on board the submarine and our life boats were taken in tow. The submarine did not make off at once, but stood by until the Leelanaw was nearly all under water. The Leelanaw disappeared at 3 p. m. Then we made off toward the Orkneys, keeping up a steady pace until 8.30 p. m. When we were a few miles off land we were ordered into our boats again and we obeyed with alacrity."

MRS. J. A. MONTGOMERY AND DAUGHTER.

TWO SURVIVORS OF THE EASTLAND DISASTER.

The picture shows Mrs. J. A. Montgomery and daughter, who were saved when the Eastland overturned at her pier in Chicago river and nearly 2,000 picnickers were lost. Three daughters of Mrs. Montgomery were lost when the vessel overturned.

MEXICAN LEADERS PLAN FOR PEACE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
El Paso, Tex., July 28.—Peace is in sight in war-racked Mexico at last. Carranza and Villa supporters intend to make efforts to reach a basis of agreement to meet the demands of the United States that the present civil war be terminated.

News of the peace plan reached here today in a dispatch from Torreon stating that Miguel Diaz Lombardo, minister of foreign affairs in the Villa cabinet, had arrived there and announced that within a week leading generals of the Carranza army would gather in Torreon for a conference with Villa representatives.

In the meantime a truce has been declared and the opposing armies are resting on their arms. According to Senor Lombardo the Carranza generals who will arrive here include Alvaro Obregon, Benjamin Hill, Jacinto Trevino, Miguel Dieguez and Pablo Gonzales. These men are the ablest leaders in the Carranza army.

Carranza's attitude on the matter has not yet been made known but it is understood that if he tries to balk the peace plans his generals will cast off his authority.

NIGHT OF TERROR IN PORT AU PRINCE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Port Au Prince, Haiti, July 28.—Panic prevailed here today as a result of the revolutionary outbreak and it is expected that marines will be landed from the United States cruiser Washington to protect the American legation as well as American lives and interests which are endangered.

Last night was a night of terror. The city was in darkness. A number of buildings were burned and heavy firing in the direction of the French legation gave rise to rumors that the revolutionary troops were trying to seize President Vilbrun Guillaume, who took refuge under the French flag on Tuesday when the national palace was attacked and partly destroyed.

Haiti now is without a recognized head of government, although Dr. Rosalvo Bobo, who is responsible for the present uprising, is expected to elect himself president. For several months from a mountain fastness in Northern Haiti, Dr. Bobo has been working to overthrow President Guillaume.

The revolution movement is expected to spread rapidly from this city as the people are greatly aroused by the execution of 160 political prisoners in one batch by President Guillaume. In the fighting that followed the attack early yesterday it is estimated that about 100 persons have been killed and wounded.

The body of General Oscar, former military governor of Port Au Prince, who carried out the order to execute the 160 prisoners and who was dragged from the Dominican legation and shot to death, was buried today.

DAY'S WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE

Paris—Violent German attacks south of Sochez in Aras region repulsed. Germans gained 20 yards but failed to break through French lines.

Copenhagen—Swedish steamer Madonna burned by German submarine. Crew saved.

London—Two English travelers sunk by German submarines. Crews saved.

Petrograd—Russians violent counter-attacks compelled Germans trying capture Warsaw to fall back five to 12 miles. Estimated German losses in last four days are 35,000.

Rome—Reported Austrians already begun to evacuate Gorizia. Austrians suffering enormous losses on Isonzo front. Evacuation of Podgora said to be imminent.

SUDDEN DEATH OF THE HON. R. A. SNYDER

The Hon. Robert A. Snyder, who died unexpectedly at his home at Saugerties on Tuesday, was one of the most widely known steamboatmen and bankers along the Hudson river.

Mr. Snyder was 79 years old but he possessed a vigorous constitution and enjoyed excellent health until recently. On Sunday he went for an automobile ride with his physician and anticipated further pleasurable trips. Death was due to heart failure.

His life was one of continuous activity. He began life as a cabin boy on a barge and later worked as deckhand and fireman. By close economy he saved sufficient money to purchase an interest in a coal barge and later became sole proprietor of the boat. Later he bought a canal boat which he operated for three years on the Erie canal.

The business venture which brought him in close association with Saugerties interests was his purchase of the ferryboat Air Line, which was plying between Saugerties and Tivoli. The Air Line, which is still in use and was owned by him at the time of his death, is one of the oldest ferries along the river.

Opportunities for investment presented themselves and he became extensively interested in different enterprises, to all of which he devoted his own efforts and attention. He found that the safest and surest way to succeed was to put his own self and conservative hand at the helm of each enterprise with which he was connected and he conducted them along lines which were preeminently successful. He strove to develop enterprises which would be of assistance to his fellow townspeople and in this way became a stockholder in many of the business enterprises of Saugerties. Among these were the Saugerties Manufacturing Company, of which he was president, and the Saugerties Printing & Publishing Company, of which he was vice president.

One of his largest enterprises was the Saugerties Steamboat Company, operating the night line between Saugerties and New York, of which he was president. He was also interested in the First National Bank of Saugerties and for many years was its president. In all his business interests he was active and devoted a considerable portion of his time to each.

Mr. Snyder's experience in public life was very large. In politics he was a staunch Republican. He held various town offices and in 1873 was elected supervisor of the town of Saugerties. The following year he was elected to the assembly from the First District of Ulster county, and in 1876 he was again elected supervisor of the town. He served again as supervisor in 1879 and during the same year was postmaster of the assembly at Albany. In the fall of 1879 he was elected sheriff of Ulster county and served for three years beginning with 1880. In 1884 he was appointed financial clerk of the assembly, and in 1885 was elected to the assembly. He was again elected to assembly in 1899, and re-elected in 1900, 1901 and 1902.

For many years he was interested in the fire department of Saugerties, and his activities resulted in the naming of the Robert A. Snyder Hose Company in his honor.

Socially, he was affiliated with Ulster Lodge, No. 133, Free and Accepted Masons, of Saugerties. For many years he was a regular attendant at the Saugerties Reformed Church.

In 1853 Mr. Snyder was married to Jane S., daughter of William and Sarah Morgan, of Wales, by whom he had four children. One son, Dwight, was drowned in the Esopus creek when he was eight years old. Mrs. Snyder died about a year and a half ago. Three children survive him. They are County Treasurer John A. Snyder, Florence M., wife of Byron L. Davis, of Saugerties, and Miss Sarah E. Snyder, who resided with her father.

Mr. Snyder possessed many friends. He was most companionable and in his many business dealings was upright and honest. He was a man of the highest integrity, open-hearted and generous and always willing to contribute to every enterprise and cause which were for the benefit of his community.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, No. 44 Washington avenue, Saugerties, on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. Ulster Lodge of Masons, of which he was a member, will attend the funeral in a body and will conduct the Masonic service. The interment will be in Saugerties.

BRITISH MILITARY AIRSHIP EXPLODES

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
London, July 28.—Two persons were killed and 15 injured by the explosion of a British military airship at Wormwood Scrubs today. The explosion occurred while the airship was in its shed. Both machine and shed were completely wrecked. The accident is believed to have been caused by a leak in the envelope of the airship.

TICKETS FOR GREAT BASEBALL GAME

It would seem that every newspaper reading citizen of Kingston must know that last year the Federation of Women's Clubs did a large amount of child welfare work, including the operating of the day nursery, and medical relief work, family rehabilitation work, secured employment for the unemployed and did other philanthropic work as its own part of bettering living conditions in Kingston. More than that it paid in full the salary of Mrs. Mac Millan, the social worker who distributed the large sum of money and articles contributed for city relief work by the people of Kingston, thus greatly increasing the activities of the social worker and the obligations of the Federation, with no added returns to the Federation.

As the result the Federation is obliged to do all possible to secure sufficient funds to carry on its own, legitimate work this coming season. For that reason, the organization fully appreciates the active interest of the Red Monogram baseball team in offering the proceeds in full of the game to be played with the Tivoli nine on Saturday afternoon of this week at Cuneo's athletic field. The money realized from this game will go into the treasury of the Federation of Women's Clubs to be used in the paying of running expenses necessary to the operation of sewing and manual training classes; medical relief work, the salary of the social worker, the maintenance of the Federation House, etc., etc. Nor are the people of the city asked to make contributions at this time, simply to buy tickets for a corking good game of baseball, wherein they will get their money's worth of sport, the players and Mr. Cuneo and other friends doing the special contributing of services. Tickets may be procured at the following places: Elkhay's store on Broadway; Johnson's drug store, the Strand; Thomas's barber shop, No. 36 Broadway; the Elks' Club; Sam Bernstein's clothing store; the Herbert Carl store; McBride's drug store, Broadway; Diehl's sporting goods store, Broadway.

Hobo Camp Raided

Tuesday afternoon Sergeant Hanley and Policeman Boyd raided a camp of hoboes near the West Shore tunnel and rounded up John Decker, John Bennett, Perry Manning, Frank Wilson and Thomas McCarthy, who were arraigned before Recorder Andrew Lang this morning, charged with being tramps. They were all sentenced to two months in the pen and sentence was suspended provided they got out of town within one hour. They got it. It was thought that two of the men camping were those wanted by the Poughkeepsie police on a charge of assault.

Smallpox on Laner.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
London, July 28.—A Christiania dispatch to the Morning Post states that the Danish-American liner United States, bound from New York to Norway, has reported by wireless that smallpox has been discovered on board.

Swedish Steamer Burned

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Copenhagen, July 28.—The Swedish steamer Madonna, has been halted at Hartlepool, has been burned by a German submarine in the North Sea. Her crew was saved.

New Y. M. C. A. Secretary

Robert Caniffa has been engaged as the new Y. M. C. A. secretary at Walden. He is a native of Marlborough where he has had charge of the institutional work of the Memorial Hall in that village.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Grace's Fiance Is Getting Wiser

INGRATITUDE

It isn't the words we express, but the deeds we do that measure the degree of our gratitude. The earth and all things in Nature receive and give back that which they have to give. The law is invariably save in the one instance of man, or rather with most men: Shower upon the majority of men your favors and helpfulness and they return for more, forgetting what was done for them before.

We concede to most of the faults of our fellowmen, excluding the one of ingratitude. We are truly grateful for the good-will and patronage of our friends, and the only way we see how to prove our gratitude is to continue to brew our splendid as good as they ever were, for they have never been less than Kingston's best beers!

THÜRINGER HOFBRÄU
OR THE INVIGORATING OLD STOCK LAGER

PETER BARMANN

OFFICE TELEPHONE CALL 66 KINGSTON

FEEDING THE DEER.

Arrangements Made to Keep Them Through the Winter.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, July 28.—Deer will be carried through the critical period of next winter by state feeding, as the result of instructions given by Llewellyn Legge, chief of the Division of Fisheries and Game, to the Division Chief Game Protectors at their regular monthly meeting in Albany this week. Marsh hay will be cut in the most remote sections of the Adirondacks, where it is impossible to take in baled alfalfa, and this swamp grass will be stacked against the starvation time that comes in late winter, when the snows pile deepest and the deer are forced to congregate in "yards." In more accessible places alfalfa will be doled out to them in sufficient quantity to prevent the terrible mortality that occurs with each hard season.

This feeding is made possible, as Chief Legge explained, because of a residue in the funds for the maintenance of the state game farms. The appropriations all provide for maintenance of the farms, and for "caring for the state's wild game." Three or four hundred dollars will be spent in cutting marsh grass on the beaver meadows of the Adirondacks. Deer will not eat marsh hay unless it is salted, so salt will be sprinkled through the stacks. Then the stacks will be enclosed with a high crib of poles, to keep the deer out until the feeding time arrives. In the late winter the game protectors will go in on snowshoes and scatter the hay, a little at a time, along the runways of the "yards." Some of it will also be stuffed into the small evergreen trees, to prevent covering by a fresh fall of snow.

Though the sum to be expended is small, it is estimated that hundreds of deer that would otherwise die can be carried over by it, because of the short time between late winter and spring, when the loss is greatest.

In other sections of the state, outside the Adirondacks, alfalfa will be fed if it becomes necessary. Deer will eat this without special treatment. Many farmers in more settled regions have for years made a practice of feeding the deer during the critical season, and this saves the lives of many animals.

After every hard winter in the North Woods the deer business is noticeably poorer, while following open seasons it is correspondingly improved. The loss is due chiefly to starvation, and to weakness from lack of food, which results in the deer succumbing to the cold. Chief Legge believes that a little food judiciously distributed will materially check this mortality.

Ralph Learns to Drive.

In the August American Magazine Edwin L. Sabin writes the adventures of a family automobilist as told by his wife. The title is "Ralph Learns to Drive." Following is an extract taken from the article:

"We certainly enjoyed our automobile. It was such a pretty car, and Ralph learned to drive splendidly. Why, even yet he has killed nobody, and has had just two damage suits, the biggest of which cost him only $75.25, which, as he says, we might otherwise have spent for mere clothes. In a way, an automobile is a real economy; it shows you how much else you can do without. And it saves street car fares, if you count gasoline at a cent a mile, oil about a quarter of a cent (which is the actual fact, with our machine), and don't try to add in tires and batteries and little repairs, which, as Ralph says, are upkeep, and not mileage.

"Ralph, of course, enjoyed the machine more than I, because he is a natural mechanic. The first thing I did was to get a nice blue duster, to wear in the machine; but he got some blue overalls, to wear under it. 'The morning after we, or he, rather, let the car butt into the end of the garage I had to call him to breakfast; and finally he answered in such a faraway manner that it seemed as though he must have fallen into something, his voice was so strangely muffled. Breakfast was getting cold. I couldn't find him, until I saw his feet sticking out, toes up, from underneath the end of our car in the garage.

"My heart leaped right into my throat. That dreadful car had made another jump and had run over him!

"Oh, darling!" I managed to gasp. "All right," he soothed. "Go ahead. I'll be there directly."

"When I peeked under, he wasn't pinned fast, after all. He was only flat on his back, with grease on his nose and his hands as black as tar. His new overalls were all greasy, too. 'For goodness' sake, what are you doing there?' I asked. It was such an undignified position. 'Looking at the transmission case, is all,' he explained. 'It leaks.' 'Here, here, our era of grease. I suppose grease is necessary to an automobile, and still I can't help but wonder where Ralph gets it all. His hands are never clean, and the laundry complains that there's grease even on his underclothing."

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

1286—A Stylish Youthful Model.

Among the many and varied styles of this season there seems none more comfortable and simple than the blouse style here shown. It has the full skirt, and new long sleeve. The neck edge is cut in a "V" outline in front and may be finished with or without the "dickey." The collar is cut in a new and pleasing shape. Blue serge would be nice for this dress, with a finish of machine stitching, or braiding and with a facing of black faille on the collar. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 14, 16, 17 and 18 years. It requires 5 1/2 yards of 44 inch material for a 16 year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date 1915 large Spring and Summer Catalogue, containing over 400 designs of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Patterns, as well as the latest Embroidery Designs, also a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, giving valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

IDEAL PARK.

Ideal Park, July 27.—Anderson Carl had the misfortune to mash the index finger of his left hand quite badly in the speedometer gears of his car one day last week. Dr. Gross of Phenicia dressed the wound, which at this writing is getting along nicely.

Services were held at the club house Sunday afternoon and were well attended. Rev. Mr. Aulds of Philadelphia, presiding.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner and daughters, Fannie and Delta, spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. DeVall.

Herbert Carl spent Friday and Saturday of last week in Kingston on business.

Charles Kelsey is employed at Lake Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Post and daughter, Ruth, and L. E. DeVall enjoyed an automobile trip to Phenicia Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. DeVall and Mrs. John Davidson of Mt. Tremper and Misses Berry and Dorothy Hoyt of Willow, called on Mrs. L. E. DeVall Sunday last.

We are much indebted to County Superintendent Loughran for calling

Made in America Best in the World

Cliequot Club

Pronounced Klee-ko

GINGER ALE

Cooler Than a Fan

You are not happy when you are hot. Better than a breeze is a bottle of cool, sparkling Cliequot Club Ginger Ale.

You will sense the fresh coolness of shady nooks and deep mountain springs. For Cliequot actually cools you. The very best of Jamaica ginger, pure cane sugar, the juices of lemons and limes, and pure, slightly laxative water drawn from a deep, rocky-bed spring are the reasons why. And the large bottle means two long drinks. It is safe when you are overheated.

Have a case in your cellar ready for the hot days. If you like variety, try your hand and see what choice mixed drinks you can make with Cliequot Club Ginger Ale. It mixes well with almost anything drinkable.

For Sale by Good Grocers and Druggists
Buy It by the Case

MATTHEWS & HARRISON
Wholesale Distributors.

Kingston Savings Bank

273 Wall street, Kingston, N. Y.
CHARTERED 1874.

OFFICERS:
JAMES A. BETTS, President.
MYRON TELLER, Vice-President.
JOHN E. KRAFT, Treasurer.
CHARLES TAPPEN, Assistant Treasurer.
CHARLES H. DE LAVERGNE, Accountant.
HARRY ENSIGN, Counsel.
JOHN J. LINSON, Counsel.

TRUSTEES:
James A. Betts, George Burgevin, Zadoc P. Boice, Levan S. Winne, Everett Fowler, John J. Linson, John E. Kraft, D. N. Mathews, Sam Bernstein, Myron Teller, Charles Tappen, A. D. Rose, Virgil B. Van Wagonen.
Deposits made on or before August 3, 1915, and remaining in bank until January 1, 1916, will be credited with five (5) months' interest.
Interest will be paid on all sums from one dollar to three thousand dollars.
Accounts may be opened by mail for which a bank book will be forwarded on receipt of New York draft, certified check, postoffice or express money order.
Rooms for the convenience of ladies are a feature of the banking house.
Interest at the rate of 4% per annum was declared for six months ending June 30, 1915.

THE RONDOUT Savings Bank

RONDOUT, N. Y.

OFFICERS:
J. E. DERRENBACHER, President.
T. C. COCKENDALL, Vice-President.
F. H. GRIFFITHS, Treasurer.
L. L. COCKENDALL, Secretary.
DAYTON MURRAY, Cashier.

TRUSTEES:
F. Stephen, Jr., E. Cockendall, F. H. Griffiths, John A. Thompson, Wesley D. Hale, A. A. Stern, J. E. Derrenbacher, T. C. Cockendall, J. Graham, H. H. Fleming, John D. Schoonmaker, Nicholas Stock, L. L. Osterhout.

Interest will be paid on all sums from $5 to $5,000.
Interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum was declared for six months ending June 30, 1915.
Interest credited semi-annually, January and July.
Money withdrawn before January 1 and July will not be entitled to interest.
Deposits made on or before the 15th of the first of each month.
All deposits made on or before the 15th day of January and July draw interest from the first days of those months.
Banking hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturdays 9 a. m. to 12 m.

ULSTER COUNTY Savings Institution

280 Wall Street, Kingston, N. Y.
INCORPORATED 1851.

E. H. LOUGHRAN, President.
GEORGE W. WASHBURN, Vice-President.
HARRY R. BRIGHAM, Secretary.
J. M. SCHAEFFER, Treasurer.
JOHN B. ALLIGER, Cashier.
JAMES J. O'CONNOR, Teller.
JOHN R. T. HALL, Bookkeeper.
PHILIP ELTING, Attorney.

TRUSTEES:
Harry R. Brigham, John B. Alliger, Howard Chipp, Philip Elting, George Hutton, E. H. Loughran, J. M. Schaeffer, John L. McGrath, A. W. Thompson, Charles S. Wood, O. F. Winne, Geo. W. Washburn, of Saugerties.

For six months ending June 30, 1915, interest was credited July 1st, 1915, at 4 per cent, per annum.
Interest not drawn will be added to the principal and draw interest.
Money deposited on or before August 3 and remaining in the bank until Jan. 1, 1916, will be credited with five (5) months' interest.
Women and children under age have by law the control of their own saving bank accounts.
Persons living out of the city may send money by bank draft, check, postoffice order or express, and deposit book will be returned by mail.
ALL BUSINESS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

BEER

WHEN YOU TAKE A GLASS OF BEER whether in the privacy of your own home, or in a more public place, there is nothing so necessary as seeing that the beer is of good quality. Poor beer is a menace to health and is never so satisfying. The man who drinks beer bearing our label knows that he is getting the best. Try it today.

Drink RED MONOGRAM

Possess a Home

and enjoy all the luxuries and comforts thereof. The initial payment down is small; you simply continue your rent-paying way and acquire a beautiful residence unconsciously. We pay the incidental expenses at the start-off, so your way is simple and clear.

SHATEMUCK REALTY CO. Inc.,

261 Fair Street,

Kingston, N. Y.

Telephone 400.

HUDSON RIVER DAY LINE

Magnificent steamers "Washington Irving," "Hendrick Hudson," "Robert Fulton," and "Albany."

Daily Except Sunday

Down steamer leaves Kingston Point, 12:32 P. M. Returning, leaves New York, Desbrosses St., 8:40 A. M. West and St., 8:00 A. M. West 120th St., 8:30 A. M. returning at Kingston Point, 4:10 P. M.

Music Restaurant

Morning Boat for New York

Daily Except Sunday

Leaves Kingston, (Rondout) 7:00 A. M. Returning, leaves Desbrosses St., 1st St. West and St., 7:00 P. M. West 120th St., 7:30 P. M. arriving at Kingston, (Rondout) 1:40 P. M.

HOTEL WOODWARD
New York
BROADWAY 42 55th ST.

Combines every convenience and home comfort and commends itself to tourists of refinement wishing to be within easy reach of the railroad stations, social, dancing and dramatic centers. 4 from "University Station" take Fourth Avenue cars, and get off at 55th Street; walk twenty steps west, 4 from Grand Central Terminal, take Broadway cars, and get off at 55th Street.

RATES

Without bath, from $1.50
With bath, from $2.00
With bath, from $5.00 double
E. D. GIBLIN, L. H. BINGHAM, Managers

EDUCATION CONTROL CAUSES STRUGGLE

The Committee on Education of the Constitutional Convention, of which Judge Clearwater is vice-chairman, is said to have given a larger number of hearings to more important bodies of educators, and to distinguished citizens than any other committee of the convention, except the Judiciary Committee.

There has been a warm contest before it from the opening of the convention between the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, Mayor Mitchell and Comptroller Prendergast of New York city, and the Board of Education of that town for the control of the schools, the mayor and the comptroller with the Board of Estimate and Apportionment contending that the Board of Education should be in all respects a subordinate branch of the city government, and that the mayor, the comptroller and the board not only should fix and determine the amount of money that the Board of Education may spend, but that they should fix the qualifications of teachers in the public schools of New York, their number and the amount of their salaries. Against all this the Board of Education and the school teachers have earnestly fought.

From the beginning it has been evident that they had the sympathy and support of President Schurman and Judge Clearwater against whom, however, for a long while has been arrayed many influential members of the committee on education. Dr. Schurman and the judge have insisted that in all cities boards of education should be supreme in the educational field, and subject only to general laws; that under no circumstances should they be subordinate to mayors, common councils or other city officials, and after much discussion and deliberation, on Friday the committee unanimously reported an amendment to the Constitution framed by the doctor and the judge, which secures that result. It is as follows:

"Every city shall have a board of education. It shall be a body politic and corporate. It shall, subject to general laws, determine the amount and direct and control the expenditures of all funds to be used for public education within its jurisdiction. Such funds, except those apportioned by the State, shall be raised by taxation in each city in the same manner as the general city taxes but shall be levied, and the amounts extended on the roll as a separate school tax."

It will at once be seen that the adoption of this amendment will bring about two important results—first, it will entirely remove the

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL JULY SALE ON RECORD!

Have You Filled Your Card? A $2.00 Clock or a $2.00 Picture Free This Week With Purchases of $10.00 or Over?

Kingstons Popular Store
CARLS
E. O. ROSE - V. A. GORMAN - A. E. ROSE

Ask For a New Card
Twenty premiums distributed to date. See display of prizes in basement.

HUNDREDS OF MONEY SAVING ITEMS AND THE PUBLIC APPRECIATES IT

Underskirts and Shirtwaists

Value $3.50—Ladies' Shirt Waist, sale price $1.87

Value 39c—Ladies' Gingham Underskirts, stripes, full size, sale price 25c

Value 59c—Ladies' Gingham and Black Satin Underskirts, good width, good material, sale price 49c

Value $2.59—Ladies' Waist, sale price $1.59c

Value $1.25—Ladies' Slightly Soiled Batiste Shirtwaists 57c

A Rousing Sale of Muslin Wear!

Dependable Undergarments Well Underprice—This July Sale Is Surely an Opportunity

Value 39c—Ladies' Full Length Muslin Underskirts, good firm material, tucked and hemstitched flounce, sale price 29c

Value 69c—Ladies' Muslin Underskirts, lace and emb. trimmed; others with plain and hemstitched, tucked flounce, good width, underlays, sale price 53c

Value 79c—Ladies' Combination Drawers and Corset Cover, broken sizes, lace and emb. trimmings, sizes 24 to 38, sale price 39c

Value $1. Ladies' Combination and Envelope Chemise, lace and emb. trimmed, sizes 36 to 44, sale price 73c

Ladies' Short Underskirts, lace and needle work trimmings; others with tucked flounce, fine material. Prices 25c to $1.00

Value 19c—Ladies' Muslin Under Drawers, good material; full size, good flounce with a hemstitch hem, sale price 15c

Value 25c—Ladies' Muslin Under Drawers, emb. trim. and plain, both styles, sale price 21c

Value 29c—Ladies' Marcella and Straight cut, muslin under drawers, sale price 25c

RALPH CONNOR ON THE GREAT WAR

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Toronto, Ont., July 28.—Writing in the Globe today under the caption "Britain's second wind," Rev. Dr. (Captain) C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor), the well known Winnipeg author and minister says:

Every one has been dutifully saying that this war is a serious business, but no man living, not even Kitchener himself, knew till three months ago just how serious it was. Kitchener knows now, Asquith knows, Lloyd George knows, Bonar Law knows, the labor leaders of Britain and the labor unions know just how serious, how deadly serious this war is.

A serious business indeed is this war. The issue of it, the cheerful and irresponsible optimism with his eye on the past, when wars were waged by men and not machines, and when valor, not explosives, won fights, declares to be absurd. Only one issue is possible, victory for our arms.

Every man in the Empire that ought to be listened to sees no hope of victory, absolutely none and little hope of even a drawn battle, unless conditions be changed.

The first impression one got on reaching London about two months ago was that the traditional British cocksureness has been shattered and had been replaced by a paralyzing sense of uncertainty.

What was wrong? The fact was simply this: That the British people were standing and looking with newly opened eyes at the spectre of defeat looming up through the channel mists, a spectre unlike the traditional spectres of our dreams, sleeping or waking, in that it refused to disappear, and wore a shiny helmet.

The British people sat up broad awake, and with that superb, cool courage that faces men up to unpleasant and terrible facts, looked the situation in the eye and began forthwith to change things.

The government showed the way. With that fine power of sacrifice which is the characteristic of the British Statesman Asquith met the crisis and a coalition government was formed.

Up to this time the call had been for men, men and more men. Now to the nation's ears came a new cry: "Munitions, munitions and more munitions." That "wonderful working little Welshman" was onto his job. Every wheel that could turn in England was set a-turning, and thousands of men and women, high and low, rich and poor were impressed somehow into the patriotic mission of making munitions of war.

Next came the question of money. Great Britain is spending three millions of pounds a day. The big loan was launched and a launching was a marvellous exhibition of co-operative patriotism. Carefully was it planned and vigorously was it put.

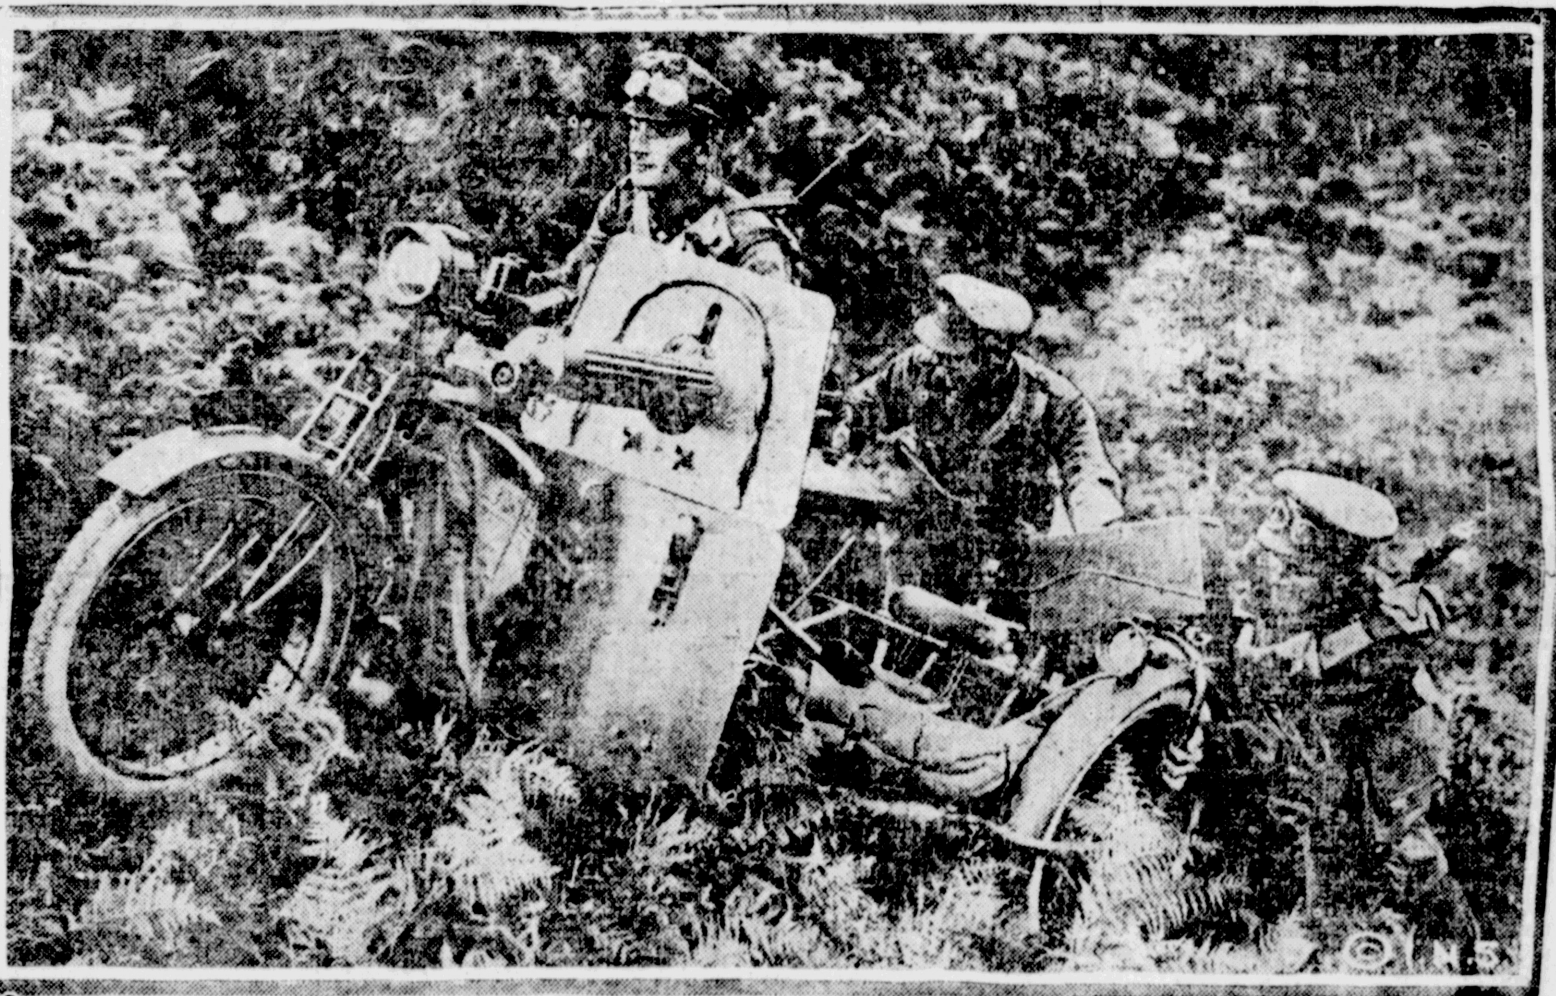

One day in the House Mr. McKenna made the quiet announcement, after the British way that eight hundred million pounds had been subscribed by three quarters of a million of British men, women and children, and that the end was not yet.

Oldest Writing.

According to the claims of the University of Pennsylvania museum, the oldest pieces of writing known to us are from the Babylonian tablets recently deciphered by Professor Barton of the University of Pennsylvania. They deal with events as far back as 5600 B. C.

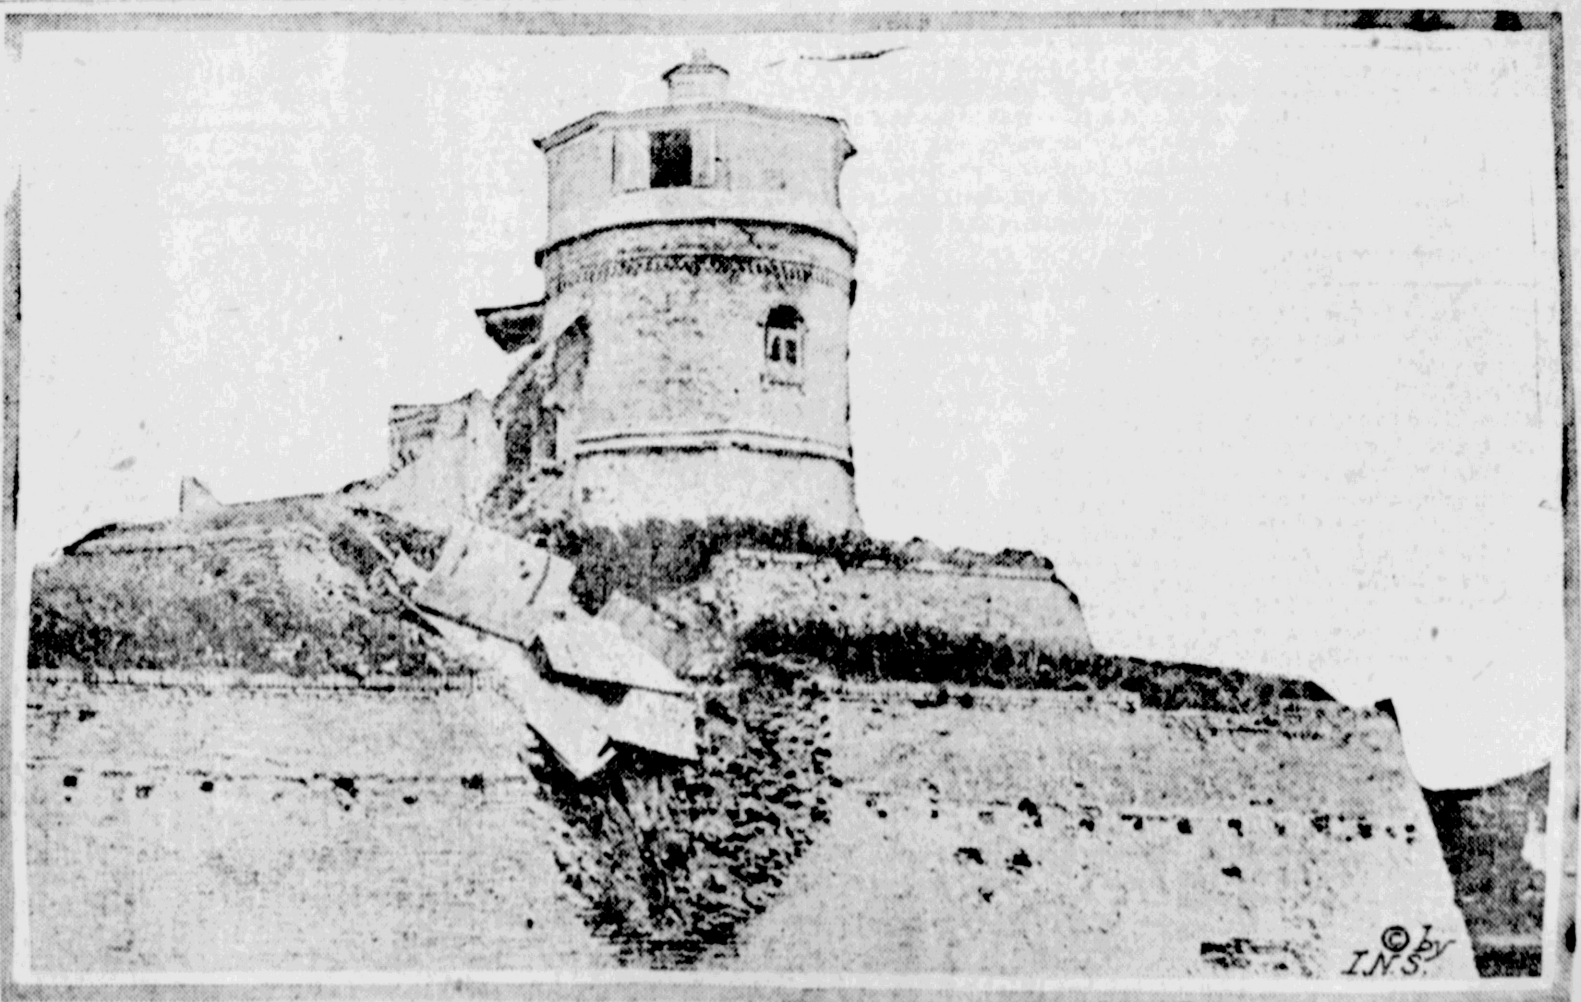

Constantinople's Mosques.

Constantinople is a city of minarets and mosques. There are about 800 mosques in it, many of them being buildings of the most beautiful and picturesque sort.

BRITISH MOTORCYCLE MACHINE GUN.

HELPING THE DRIVER OVER THE ROUGH. This picture, taken "somewhere in France," shows the latest type of British motorcycle machine gun being helped over the rough by members of the squad. These little machines have been found to be very successful, because of their lightness and speed. They can be moved quickly from place to place and are always ready for action. Besides the driver, two men are carried along to help serve the little weapon.

EFFECT OF AUSTRIAN SHELL ON BELGRADE FORTRESS

WHERE AUSTRIAN SHELL EXPLODED.

This picture shows the damage done to the outside wall of the Serbian fortress at Belgrade, by the explosion of an Austrian shell. The Serbian fortifications have been under fire most of the time since the beginning of the war a year ago.

Be Dependent or Independent

Are you giving your brains and energy or are you selling them? If you are selling them why not advertise for the highest bidder? The Freeman's Want Ad. Department is the mart where daily transactions are made between men who traffic in ability.

Summer Furniture at Big Price Reductions

All of our Summer Furniture has been given new low prices. You can now afford to crowd your porch a little, if necessary, in order to take advantage of the extra values we are offering in warm weather furniture. Here are samples:

LAWN SWINGS.

Lawn Swings, $16 kind, $11.00
Lawn Swings, $14 kind, $10.00
Lawn Swings, $8.00 kind, $6.50
Lawn Swings, $6.00 kind, $4.00

ROCKERS.

Green Stand Rockers, coated with Outdoor Spar-Varnish, $1.50, $2.40, $2.50, $3.25 and $3.75.

WICKER FURNITURE.

Reduced from 10 per cent to 25 per cent.

COUCH HAMMOCKS.

Entire stock to be closed out. Only about 14 left.

$6.50 Couch Hammock, $4.80
$8.50 Couch Hammock, $6.00
$10.00 Couch Hammock, $8.80
$12.00 Couch Hammock, $9.75
$14.00 Couch Hammock, $11.40
$16.00 Couch Hammock, $13.25
$18.00 Couch Hammock, $14.00

RED SULKEYS.

With top, Special, $5.50, $6.75, $7.50, $8.25 and $9.75.

GO-CARTS AND BABY WAGONS.

$40.00 Baby Wagon at $33.00
$34.00 Baby Wagon at $28.00
$28.00 Baby Wagon at $23.00
$25.00 Baby Wagon at $21.00
$23.00 Baby Wagon at $19.00
$20.00 Baby Wagon at $17.00
$18.00 Baby Wagon at $15.80
$16.00 Baby Wagon at $12.75
$14.00 Baby Wagon at $10.75
$12.00 Baby Wagon at $9.50

REFRIGERATORS.

$50.00 Refrigerators for $45.00
$45.00 Refrigerators for $41.00
$40.00 Refrigerators for $38.00
$38.00 Refrigerators for $34.50
$36.00 Refrigerators for $32.50
$30.00 Refrigerators for $26.00
$28.00 Refrigerators for $24.50
$26.00 Refrigerators for $22.00
$20.00 Refrigerators for $18.00
$18.00 Refrigerators for $16.00
$16.00 Refrigerators for $14.00
$14.00 Refrigerators for $12.50

GREGORY & COMP'NY

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Brief and Pointed Items That Come by Telegraph.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Jersey City, N. J.—Mrs. Sarah B. Eiddick's will leaves $900 for 999 masses for the repose of her soul.

New York—Mrs. Frederick Weaverson, 50, has sued Mrs. Carmeline W. Frame, 72, for $250,000 for alleged alienation of her 60-year-old husband's affections.

New York—Vernon Castle, the dancer, says he is going to join the British army as an aviator. Castle was born in England and came to this country ten years ago.

New York—Twenty years courtship has ended in the marriage of John J. Carrey, vice-president of the Capehart Advertising Company and Miss Martha A. Later, a successful advertising manager. Both had decided to wait until each had attained success in their profession.

New York—Mrs. Martha Stephens, 50, a wealthy widow, has advertised for a eugenic husband. She will submit to a physical examination and expects the man to do likewise.

Ideal Helpmates.

The farmer's wife knows more about her husband's business than any other man's wife knows about his. She has a fairer, clearer and more helpful understanding of it than the average lawyer's, doctor's or merchant's wife can possibly have about her husband's business, for she lives and works with her husband on their "plant." The farmer's wife is the farmer's partner in more senses than one. In the majority of cases she actually operates certain departments of the business.

Most wives have genuine interest in and some information about their husband's business, but the farmer's wife, living with her partner on their plant, occupies a unique position among all wives. With this greater opportunity for helpfulness than her city sisters her responsibilities have increased proportionately. All honor and respect to her who carries this heavier burden.—Farm and Fireside.

Terms Not Accepted.

While out fishing one day, dressed in oilskins and a slouch hat, Mr. Cleveland was accosted by an amateur fisherman dressed in the height of fashion in outing togs.

"Hello, there, boatman," called out the stranger, who saw that Mr. Cleveland had made a good catch. "What will you take for your fish?"

"I'm not selling them," replied Mr. Cleveland.

"Well, what do you want to take me out fishing tomorrow?"

Mr. Cleveland laughed, enjoying the joke.

"I can't make any engagement except by the season. Will you give me as much as I made last year?"

"You're a sharp fellow, but you're a mighty fine fisherman, and I'll accept your terms. How much did you earn?"

"Oh, about $1,000 a week. I was president of the United States."

Kingston Daily Freeman.

TERMS:
Per Annum in Advance.....$5.00
Per Month......50
Ten Cents Per Week.

Entered as Second-class matter at the post office at Kingston, N. Y.
Published by Freeman Publishing Company, at 25 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Jay K. Klock, President; Alfred L. Linton, Secretary; Address: 25 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Louis M. Linton, Treasurer, 242 Albany street, Kingston, N. Y.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association.
Member New York Associated Press.
Official paper of Kingston City.
Official paper of Ulster County.

Please address all communications and make all money orders and checks payable to Freeman Publishing Company, 25 Broadway.
Telephone Calls
New York Office: Mrs. Dowd, 1875.
Ulster Office: 532.

KINGSTON, N. Y., JULY 28, 1915.

Whether we get into trouble with England or Germany or not, the demonstrated possibility of such a misfortune has aroused the whole country to the necessity of preparing ourselves for defence. The total amount appropriated for our army and navy for this fiscal year was $259,000,000. Most of this money seems to have been wasted, or we would not be in such a deplorable state of unpreparedness, yet nobody has audibly advocated plugging the leaks. The whole cry is for more money, and it is urged that the total of the next appropriation bills be made $450,000,000. It is estimated that this would put us on our way to obtaining a trained army of half a million men, an enlarged navy and fleets of airships and submarines which will be more than jokes. The question which is bothering the Democratic leaders in Congress is how to get the money. The "war taxes in time of peace," which expire by limitation with this year, will obviously have to be renewed. Probably the income tax will be raised and also extended to take in men who get as little as $1,000 a year. It is proposed to tax tea and coffee and extend the scope of stamp taxes. Of course, no Democrat dares to suggest a return to a protective tariff, which could be so adjusted as to raise as much money as might be needed, at the same time stimulating American industries.

The proposal of Secretary Daniels to encourage American inventors by having their ideas examined by a board of experts headed by Edison is the occasion for some reminiscent remarks by the Scientific American, which truly observes that the innovation comes none too soon. We have already called attention to the fact that the first flying machine and the first submarine were made in this country, but that our Government practically ignored these epoch-making inventions until they were adopted abroad and developed to high efficiency. Our contemporary adds the information that Sir Hiram Maxim, a Maine boy, invented the machine gun and tried to get our Government to develop it, but met with contemptuous refusal, whereas in Europe the merit of his device was instantly recognized and England gave him a title of nobility. When Harvey offered his invention of face-hardened or carbonized armor plate to our government he was insulted. So was Janney, the inventor of a speed gear without which big guns cannot be properly handled, and Lewis, who designed a depression range finder of incalculable value and a 25-pound machine gun. It is hard to understand why this nation, which leads the world in inventive genius, should have been cursed for generations with statesmen unable to get a new mechanical idea into their heads, while in Europe the conditions are the reverse. Perhaps the explanation is that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country.

The Legislature of Georgia has seen fit to adopt a rule that none of its members may enter the chamber while intoxicated. That is in itself a very good idea, since few of us would care to live under laws made by drunks, but it is a curious thing that this precaution is necessary in a prohibition State, while in "wet" States it has never been found necessary. Formerly, Georgia Legislatures were notably sober bodies and were highly reputed for dignity. Now that the sale of liquor has been made illegal, conditions have utterly changed. What is true of the law-makers is true of men in other walks of life. The underlying cause is the revolt of human nature against unreasonable regulations. The result is always the same. In dry Topeka one out of every 41 residents was arrested for drunkenness last year, while in wet Cincinnati the ratio was but one to 267. There is more crime of every kind, more pauperism and a higher death rate in the dry States than in the wet, which is quite natural. Strong drink makes men wicked, sick and poor, and prohibition means increased indulgence, since drunkards get intoxicated in their most condensed form and consume them more rapidly than if they knew where they could easily get a small quantity when desired. The excise law of the State of New York is the best plan yet devised for dealing with the temperance question, and only the uninformed or unthinking would like to substitute the Georgia plan for it.

AGE AS A SECRET.

(By Our Woman Editor.)

Newspaper writers—menfolk, generally, they are—make very merry indeed, and all sorts of jokes pass back and forth regarding the big question of woman and her age.

Even the most faithful guardian of the vital age-secret will admit the folly of attempted concealment, since the ravages and footmarks of time are written so plainly that all may read if they will. She will grant the beauty of sincerity and the weakness of protestations, knows that to all intents and purposes she is not a minute older than she looks; yet when the heyday is passed and the outward and visible signs begin their encroaching work, she steadfastly refuses to be interviewed upon that one mighty question and leaves it to interested folk to do their own guessing.

And, frankly, do you blame her so much?

Undignified, faltering and evasive as the attitude may be, it has been more than half forced upon her, and she would be something more than a heroine if the age query lost all its terrors.

Of course you have not failed to bear the enlightening conversation which runs something like this:

"Let me see; she must be nearly thirty"—but why proceed? Everyone recognizes the history in slightly varying form, which begins with the first tooth and ends with very last day, includes all the cousins and aunts needed to establish her on the proper age-basis, which, when all the testimony is in, registers "forty, if she's a day."

It is weak to be disturbed, but it is femininely human. We all remember the golden days of the first flush of youth, when to be twenty-one was to have reached the beginning of the end, and when we considered thirty quite without the pale of everything desirable; and though we keep advancing the limit, intolerant youth is still at our heels, and in its philosophy there is no such thing as "seventy years young."

It is to smile when one keeps an insistent questioner at bay, but since he is so questioning in wanting to know, so ruthless in criticisms, why not let him wonder a bit and still retain the secret intact?

Catching a belated car a day or so ago one was a bit amused at a scrap of conversation that floated her way. Two men stood waiting, too, and as they idly talked back and forth a woman went by, and the light wind carried their remark as she passed—"Bertha is growing old, isn't she?"

Now, it happened that all three had been classmates in school and so stood on the sure ground of knowledge as to the flight of the years. The speed of time had set a few silver marks upon all, but the woman bore them lightly indeed, was exceptionally attractive and winsome in spite of her age.

And the listener asked the unanswered question—Didn't they recognize that they, too, were well over the boundaries of youth, into the land where they were "growing old?"

If woman might be granted just a few years leeway during which she might not be touched by the flight of years, perhaps she would accept the criticisms of "advancing age" with equanimity; but since that cannot be extended and she still remains open to the unequal scrutiny, it is fairly safe to predict that to the end of time she will cherish her age with all the care of a keeper of precious jewels—at least, she will fancy she is hiding it, but sometimes she deludes only herself.

Can you measure the depth of curiosity that will permit folk to resort to almost any device to ascertain the exact age of a woman? Old lists, old records of one sort and another have been forced to yield the secret at the stupid behest of curiosity, and tell me isn't the curiosity worse than the original sin of prevarication?

It is a silly, almost an unthinkable little sin, and a very unproductive one; but if a woman wants to hide her age from the wondering world and if the wondering world is more insistent with her than with her brother, why haunt her dreams by the steady pressure of curiosity and comment? So long as she does not resort to deliberate fibbing, let her fool her public in peace, if she can, serene in the consciousness that she plays the better part than does the inquisitive individual.

On general principles, there is a pretty fair sense of honor even in so small a thing as permitting one to retain her secrets, great or small, undisturbed by prying eyes and inquisitive tongues.

We cannot be strong all the time, and since this weakness has grown by the manner of food that has been served, where is the fault?

FRANCES SHAFFER.

Be true to your word and your work and your friend—O'Reilly.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

"A captain of industry, is he? And how did he begin his career?"
"As a drummer."—Boston Transcript.

"Mr. Dauber does a lot of work in the nude, you know, Mrs. Nurich."
"Great guns! Ain't those artists eccentric?"—Buffalo Express.

Lofer—"What makes that kid such a popular caddy? He looks like an idiot." Mashie—"He is—so he can't keep count above five."—Judge.

Mrs. Hennypeck (peevishly)—"When you tell me to do a thing, like a fool I go and do it." Mrs. Hennypeck (acridly)—"No, you go and do it like a fool."

Mother—"Been fighting with that Murphy boy again, have you? Why didn't you say, 'Get thee behind me, Satan'?" Benny—"Behind me? Gee, I was wishin' he'd get between us!"—Puck.

"Keep you ear to the ground, my boy, keep your ear to the ground." "A fellow can't keep his ear to the ground and his nose to the grindstone at the same time."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"An artful angler, you say?" "I never knew a man who was more so." "Pshaw! He never catches anything." "I know it, but 50 per cent of his fishing yarns are believed."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Inner Life.

An anecdote about the Sultan of Turkey was told at the Philadelphia Club the other day.

A famous woman writer, it appears, was visiting Constantinople and through her ambassador she was presented to the Sultan.

"And how do you like Constantinople, madam?" the commander of the faithful asked her.

"Oh, very well indeed," she answered. And then, in the hope of bringing the conversation round to her books, she added, "But I find I can't live my inner life here as I do at home."

The sultan started. Then he said, gravely, stroking his beard. "Well, of course, no one should drink our Constantinople water without boiling it first."—Philadelphia North American.

Only a Trifle Lazy.

A lawsuit was recently in full swing, and during its progress a witness was cross-examined as to the habits and character of the defendant.

"Has Mr. March a reputation for being abnormally lazy?" asked counsel briskly.

"Well, sir, it's this way—" "Will you kindly answer the question asked?" struck in the irascible lawyer.

"Well, sir, I was going to say it's this way. I don't want to do the gentleman in question any injustice, and I won't go so far as to say, sir, that he's lazy, exactly; but if it required any voluntary work on his part to digest his food—why, he'd die from lack of nourishment, sir."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A Natural Pessimist.

Young James was obviously disturbed by the almost incessant yells which his baby brother had been indulging in for the past few minutes.

"What is the baby crying for?" asked a kind-faced, motherly woman, bending over the carriage. "Oh, I dunno; he's always cryin'. I never came across an one 'ot looks upon the dark side o' things as he does," rejoined James, with a frown.—Harper's Magazine.

A Desperate Race.

Little Charlotte accompanied her mother to the home of an acquaintance where a dinner dance was being given. When the dessert course was reached, the little girl was brought down and given a place next to her mother at the table.

The hostess was a woman much given to talking, and in relating incidents quite forgot to give Charlotte anything to eat.

After some time had elapsed Charlotte could bear it no longer. With the soba rising in her throat, she held up her plate as high as she could, and said, "Does anybody want a clean plate?"—New York Times.

CLINTONDALE.

Clinton, July 28.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold their annual fair on the afternoon and evening of Friday, August 13. Music in the evening by the Highland Band. Everything useful, beautiful and delicious will be on sale.

In the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarenes last Sunday Miss Lina M. Hauth of Brooklyn, N. Y., sang beautifully in the morning, "The Holy City," and in the evening, "Face to Face." The themes for next Sunday are: Morning, "The Christian Life and the Eagle's Life," and that of the evening, "The Way of Life." Special music is expected.

Miss Isadora Livingston visited her sister, Mrs. Martin Upright, at Highland last week.

John Hornbeck is giving his residence a new coat of paint. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Covert of New York city are visiting Mrs. Covert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Terwilliger.

Summer guests are arriving at the several boarding houses. James T. Ellis is visiting friends in Brooklyn.

TWENTY AND TEN YEARS AGO.

July 28, 1895—Engagement of Minnie Cohen and Herman Marblestone announced.

Augustus D. Stein drowned when Terry's pleasure yacht capsized off Main's brickyard.

July 28, 1905—Isaac Davis of Kripplush attempted suicide. Barn of Frank Mills on South Wilbur avenue destroyed by fire. Loss $1,500.

Discovered the Mississippi. De Soto is credited with being the first white man ever to see the Mississippi river.

SEE THE 9x12 $60.00 Whittall Wilton Rug

— IN —
OUR SHOW WINDOW

THIS is the RUG that was out in the sun and rain, and was walked on by over 100,000 people. It has been washed and cleaned and will be sold to the highest bidder. Call or write us as to how much you will give for it.

Whittall Rugs Give Service

A Safe Place to Trade

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY
STOCK-CORDT
INC.
KINGSTON, N. Y.
TELEPHONE 198

Furniture
Rugs
Carpets

KINGSTON OPERA HOUSE

THE HOME OF PARAMOUNT PICTURES

A Guarantee of Superiority

THE WONDER PICTURES OF THE PHOTO-PLAY WORLD.

2:30, 7:15 and 9 10c ANY SEAT ANY SHOW

Tonight

FLORENCE REED

as Georgianna Carley in

"HER OWN WAY"

Five Acts of Love, Romance and Self-Sacrifice

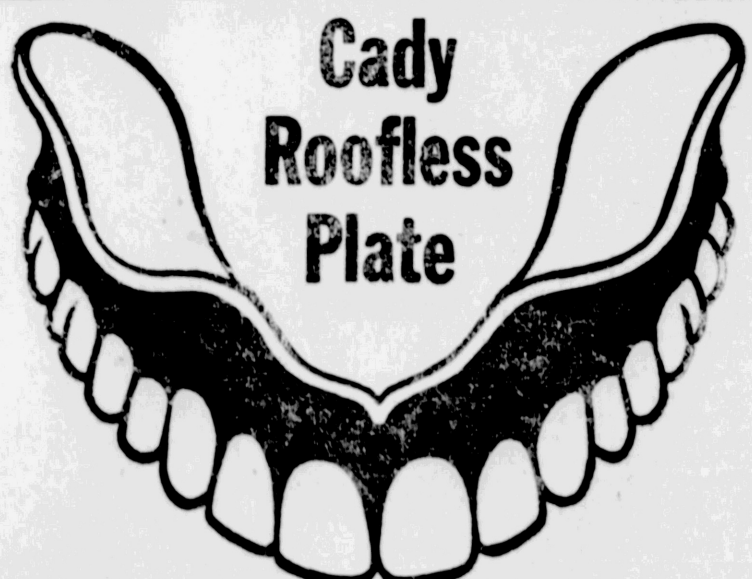

THURSDAY ONLY

—SELIG SELECTS—

"The Millionaire Baby"

Presenting Harry Mestayer and an All-star Cast.

Dramatized for the Motion Pictures by Gilson Willets from Anna Katherine Green's Story of Mystery, Intrigue and Adventure.

The Cady Dental Offices have been working on a perfect fitting roofless plate for nearly five years. They have now perfected them and will guarantee them to fit. These plates restore the sense of taste the same as eye glasses restore sight. They are light, sweet and cool. They cost no more than other plates.

CADY DENTAL OFFICE

324 Wall St.

Kingston, N. Y.

WANT "ADS"

INSERTED AT THE SMALL COST OF

CENT-A-WORD

ARE YOUR TEETH YOUR CHARM, or would your smile be as agreeable if you displayed no teeth? Every body can have a charming smile.

OUR EXPERT DENTISTRY can produce it by replacing decayed teeth with Crown and Bridge work, expert Fillings and Plates. Every one should add to health and good looks by availing himself of our offer. Delay is false economy. Let us improve your smile To-Day.

DR. HILL

312 Wall St. Kingston, N. Y.
Lady Attendant
Phone 863

Dance

AT THE GLENBROOK

Shandaken

One Hour Out

GOOD ROAD

GOOD MUSIC

Dancing 9 to 2

It's So Easy

to make your home bright and cheerful. Have your old silver replated, your chandeliers refinished and see what a difference it makes. We do all kinds of plating. Have the metal parts of your auto nickel plated and save labor.

THE W. G. BROWNE MFG. CO.
Foxhall avenue and Stephan st.
KINGSTON, N. Y.

Miller's Taxi Service

WILLIAM MILLER, Prop.
TO AND FROM ALL TRAINS
Taxicab and Cab Service. Touring Cars to Rent. Day and Night Service.
42 Elmendorf St., Kingston, N. Y.
N. Y. Phone 17.

A. B. Shufeldt R. T. Fairle

SHUFELDT

AUDITING SERVICE

CONSULTING ACCOUNTANTS

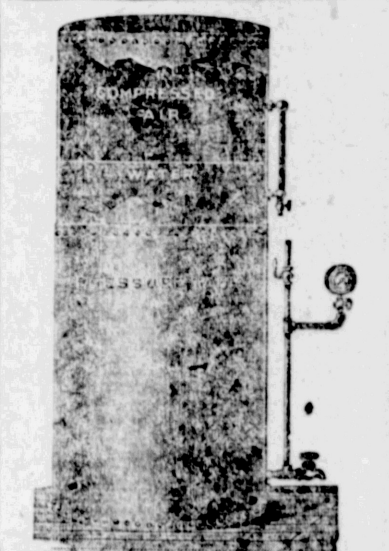

39 Shufeldt St.,

Phone 1444-W. Kingston, N. Y.

Accounts Audited.

New Systems Installed.

Special attention given to financial statements and income tax reports.

A Satisfactory WATER SUPPLY for Country Homes

Plenty of fresh running water day and night.
No attic tank to leak. No freezing. Plenty of pressure for fire protection, for sprinkling lawn and garden, or washing wagons and automobiles.
Inexpensive and durable. Hand or Power.

CANFIELD STOVE CO.

Plumbing, Heating and Sheet Metal Work.
16-18 Strand and 35-37 Ferry Street.

Go to Joe's OLD HATS CLEANED

Straw and Panama Hats Cleaned and Blocked. Also Ladies' and Gents' Shoe Shining Parlor.
Open Sunday from 9:30 to 12 noon.
JOE ERENA, 588 Broadway

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of the late of the city of Kingston, county of Ulster, deceased, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, David V. Westbrook, the executor of the estate of said deceased, at 222 Fair street, in the said city of Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 27th day of September, 1915.

Dated, March 23, 1915.
DAVID V. WESTBROOK, Executor.

DeWitt Roosa, Attorney, Kingston, N. Y.

NOTICE.—A meeting of the stockholders of the Waterbury Club will be held at the office of the Company, No. 275 Fair Street, Kingston, N. Y., on Friday, August 6th, 1915, at two o'clock P. M.
KINGSTON, N. Y., July 24, 1915.
C. K. LOUGHRAN, Secretary.

You will find the Biggest Bargains in

Pumps and Oxfords

AT

CROSBY'S
MEN'S FURNISHINGS
SHOES—HATS
574 BROADWAY

RELIABLE TAXI COMP'Y

To and From All Trains.

Day and Night Service.

Touring Cars to Rent.

CHARLES BULEY, Prop.

Phone 1750. 16 Oak Street.

W. H. CONNELLY, M. D.,

Physician, Surgeon and Specialist

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

FAIR ST. KINGSTON, N. Y.

Office Hours—9:30 a. m. until 12 m.

Both Telephones.

Time Table of Ferryboat Transport

Leaves Kingston—6:30, 7:40, 9:00, 9:50, 10:30, 11:30 a. m.; 12:15, 12:50, 1:30, 2:40, 3:20, 4:00, 4:40, 5:35, 6:20, 6:50 p. m.
Leaves Rhinecliff—7:15, 8:10, 9:30, 10:10, 11:15 a. m.; 12:00 m.; 12:30, 1:05, 2:15, 3:00, 3:40, 4:25, 5:10, 6:05, 6:38, 7:05 p. m.

THE

ULSTER & DELAWARE

RAILROAD

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT JUNE 27, 1915

Trains are due to leave this city as follows

Kingston Point, 12:15 p. m.

Rhinecliff Sta., 7:00 a. m.

Union Sta., 7:35 a. m.; 2:12, 2:20, 12:45, 12:55, 1:40 p. m.

Trains are due to arrive as follows:

Union Sta., 10:50, 11:40 a. m.

1:05, 1:15, 4:55, 5:15, 7:30, 7:35, 8:45 p. m.

Rhinecliff Sta., 12:00, 7:45, 10:50 p. m.

Kingston Point, 11:05 noon.

Daily, 7 days except Sunday.

Sunday only.

For full information see large time table or secure folder at U. & D. ticket offices.

N. A. BIRM

General Passenger Agent

CENTRAL HUDSON

STEAMBOAT CO.

South Bound For New York.

Week days except Saturday at 5 p. m.

SATURDAYS at 11 a. m. Sundays 6 p. m.

North Bound For Kingston.

From Pier 24 Franklin street.

Week Days except Saturdays at 4 p. m.

West 129th street 4:30 p. m. Saturdays at 1 p. m. West 129th street 1:30 p. m.

Newburgh, Albany and Troy Line.

North Bound at 10:30 a. m.

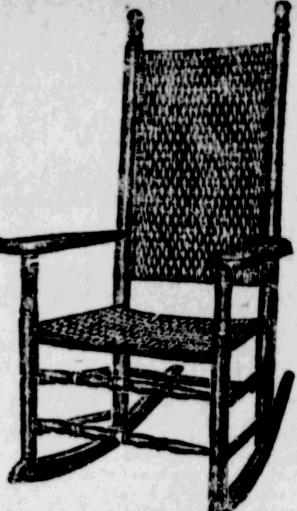

South Bound at 2:15 p. m.

J. F. STEED, Agent.

Tel. 150.

SUMMER FURNITURE

We have made radical price reductions on everything pertaining to Summer Homefurnishings. Whether you need a single simple chair or a complete set of porch or room furniture, you will find it here in a style to suit at the lowest clearance prices in Kingston.

PORCH ROCKERS AT $1.50 UP

LINOLEUM SPECIALS

55c PRINTED CORK LINOLEUM, an extra good quality in pleasing patterns, square yard

MATTING SPECIALS

NEW 30c JAPANESE MATTING, good, heavy grade, in a wide range of neat colorings, the yard

$1.00 INLAID LINOLEUM, one of the best fabrics on the market, for kitchen, hall or stairs, square yard

NEW 25c CHINA MATTINGS, in fine striped effects, a host of neat patterns to choose from, yard

Kaplan's Furniture House

KINGSTON'S BEST CARPET AND RUG STORE
14 E. STRAND Open Evenings RONDOUT

Fifteen Degrees Cooler Than the Street

Broadway Casino

All Carlyle Blackwell

Features Week of July 26

Saturday—"THE TRUTH WAGON"

Friday—"HIGH HAND"

Thursday—"HOOSIER SCHOOLMASTER"

TONIGHT

Alliance Films Corporation Presents
CARLYLE BLACKWELL

-IN-

"THE MAN WHO COULD NOT LOSE"

FROM THE BOOK BY RICHARD HARDING DAVIS

Champery Carter, a writer, late one night receives a telegram from his publishers stating that he must deliver on the following morning the manuscript of the novel he has contracted to write for them.

Not one word of the story has been written yet. Putting a piece of paper in his typewriter he begins his tale, "The Man Who Could Not Lose." Through the long hours of the night he writes his tale with frenzied haste. Continued at Broadway Casino.

FRENCH PERISCOPE IN TRENCHES

SUBMARINE ATTACHMENT ADAPTED TO THE TRENCHES.

Here is an excellent picture of the trench periscope in use in the French trenches. These two officers, sheltered perfectly from rifle and shell fire, are still able, by the system of reflecting mirrors to see perfectly what is going on outside their trench.

"Put the People Wise"

By informing them of your immediate wants. Best results are obtained by inserting a cent-a-word adv. in the Daily Freeman

BRITISH QUESTION TAKES PRECEDENCE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, July 28.—The shipping controversy between the United States and Great Britain took precedence in the minds of administration officials today. Much interest was shown in the probable contents of the new communication which Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister has announced will be sent within a week.

The sinking of the American flag-ship Leelanaw by a German submarine was relegated to second place as the government now considers it to be a diplomatic matter only which will require legal argument as in the case of the William P. Frye.

The request of Great Britain for postponement of the publication of its note received on Monday came as a surprise to official and diplomatic circles here.

Pending receipt of the supplementary note by this government, the communication being prepared by President Wilson and Secretary Lansing on the controversy will not be sent. Work will proceed on the American note, however, as the British blockade situation becomes more and more serious from the standpoint of the American shipper and pressure is being brought upon the administration for early action.

It is understood in British circles that the only purpose of the London officials in asking postponement of the publication of its note sent last week was a desire of His Majesty's government to reply in detail to the communication of the U. S. dated on July 17 in regard to cases before prize courts.

In this communication the Washington government declined to recognize the validity of prize court proceedings in the present controversy. It was argued that there is a considerable difference of opinion between the two governments as to the principles of law applicable in prize court proceedings and the U. S. would stand on the rights of its citizens under international law as hitherto established. This government objects to a limitation of the rights of shippers by the British order in council or similar British legislation and it was represented strongly that the rules governing neutral shipping should be in accordance with international law and not shaped by legislation of this character.

The communication from London that has been held up is believed to contain the general suggestion that the shippers of this country should be satisfied with recourse to the prize court, it being pointed out at the same time by Great Britain that she considers herself within international law in her blockade.

Officials no longer are worried about the Leelanaw incident. The statement of the captain and crew of the vessel that they were given ample warning before she was sunk is an extenuating circumstance which minimizes the importance of the incident and it now is now understood that the representations of this government will concern mainly the question of reparation for the ship and the alleged violation of the treaty of 1823 between the United States and Prussia. It is expected that the German version of the incident will be sought from Berlin before final representations are made to the Kaiser's government.

Sunday School Outing.

The members of the Bible School of the Wurts Street Presbyterian Church participated in a most delightful outing on Tuesday. The pupils and teachers and their friends enjoyed a fine luncheon at Kingston Point as the beginning of the good time. Then they boarded the Gardner (there being a goodly number in the entire party but not enough to cause any apprehension as to overcrowding the boat) and spent a charming two hours in the sail to Poughkeepsie. There special trolley cars were in waiting and a ride around the north end of the city gave the excursionists a close view of the big fire which had broken out again yesterday morning and was sending up considerable smoke. The trolley ride then continued around the south end of the city, passing many of the handsome residences of Poughkeepsie, Eastman Park and other points of interest. The boat left Poughkeepsie about 4 o'clock, arriving home at half past six after an exceptionally happy day, which had no smallest untoward incident to mar its pleasure.

At The Wauna Sanitarium.

Christian Elmer of New York city, under the care of Dr. Van Wagenen at the Wauna Sanitarium, is doing nicely.

Miss Mary Jordan of Hasbrouck avenue who is under the care of Dr. Frederick Snyder at the Wauna Sanitarium, is convalescing.

Baby Kenik of North Front street, who was operated upon at the Wauna Sanitarium Dr. Keator, has recovered and been taken to his home.

George Winfield of Lucas avenue who is a surgical patient of Dr. Frederick Snyder at the Wauna Sanitarium, is doing nicely.

Mrs. Harold Smith of Binghamton, N. Y., operated upon by Dr. Mark O'Meara and Dr. Gifford at the Wauna Sanitarium, is making a good recovery.

Runaway Horse Missing.

Mr. Wenys of Cold Brook has reported to the police that a horse of his ran away on Tuesday night and the animal has been traced as far as Hurley. The only harness on the horse was a halter. The animal is a chestnut with a white spot on the rump and is bob tailed.

Still Looking Backward.

About two years after marriage Friend Wife sizes up Friend Husband and wonders what she was smoking when she imagined that he was an Ideal Man.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HIGH PRAISE FOR CANADIAN TROOPS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, July 28.—The highest possible praise was given to the Canadian troops today by Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, who has just returned from a visit to the British front in Belgium and France.

While abroad Sir Robert met President Poincare, of France; Field Marshal Sir John French, commander in chief of the British troops; General Joseph Joffre, commander in chief of the French army, and the Prince of Wales. He was accompanied by Price Arthur of Connaught.

"I regard my trip as the most interesting and inspiring event of my life," said the Canadian premier.

"The Canadian troops are in splendid condition and the officers and men alike are keen in the performance of their duty. They were naturally very much pleased to see any one who came straight from Canada. Their fine appearance and excellent spirits were really an inspiration.

"At both British and French headquarters and everywhere in France as well as in England the highest appreciation is expressed for the courage, resourcefulness and endurance of the Canadians. These qualities were shown in all the engagements in which the Canadians participated, especially in the second battle of Ypres. Both Sir John French and Gen. Joffre spoke in terms of highest admiration of the conduct of the Canadian forces. The men hardly realize how profound is the impression their splendid achievements have made upon the people of the whole of our Dominions. They impressed me as thoroughly conscious of the world-wide issues involved in the war and are inspired by an unwavering determination to perform their duty in the future as in the past.

"I was also greatly impressed by the courage, determination and self control of the French."

APPROACH TO WARSAW.

Some Facts About the Scene of War in Poland.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, D. C., July 28.—For weeks German regiments have been working their way from Cracow, and Piotrkow, north and northwest, toward Warsaw through the government of Radom. Tomasow, Koscielz, Przedborz, Staszow, Sandomierz, Ostrowiec, Iza, and the River Pilica have followed one another in the prominence of war reports, as the invaders have converged upon the central government of Warsaw, the kernel of Russian Poland. The nature of the country through which the German advance from the southwest has been pressed is described in a primer of war geography just issued by the National Geographic Society.

"Radom is a triangular province with its base toward Galicia and its apex pointed directly at Warsaw. The government contains 4,768 square miles, much of which is as rich as any land in Europe. More than 50 per cent of the total area of this government was under cultivation in 1905.

"The government is bounded on the west and north by the River Pilica, and upon the north, east and south by the River Vistula. In common with all Russian Poland, it has suffered a dampening of its industrial and commercial development due to a lack of facilities for communication. The Vistula River forms one of its main avenues of trade, while one railway crosses through the government from Ivangorod to Kielce, and a branch line projects south into the central part from Tomasow. Radom is bounded by the governments of Piotrkow on the west, Warsaw and Siedlce on the north, Lublin on the east, and Austrian Galicia and the Polish government of Kielce on the south.

"The military difficulty of the country increases toward the south and toward the west for irregular hills build its southern area and marshes and swamps border the sides of the unhealthy Pilica. The southern lands of the government are taken up with the heavily forested Sandomir Heights, a broad series of ranges of deeply cleft hills, their ridges varying from 800 to 1,000 feet in height, and here and there pierced by valleys scoured and worn in great cuts, that are bottomed by the richest of agricultural land and drained by tributaries of the Vistula.

"Toward the central region, the country becomes a long, rolling swell, broken ever and again by stray hill formations, and in places densely forested. The cleared land here is also extremely fertile. Its principal crops are wheat, rye, barley, oats, buckwheat, hemp, flax and potatoes. A vast amount of fuel alcohol is distilled from the potatoes raised in the government. Here, too, are great cattle, swine and goose farms. Large quantities of grain and meats have always been prominent exports from Radom.

"The northern districts of Radom government again take on a character disadvantageous to military operations. The land slopes away, flat, low, monotonous, to fever-breathing swamps, marshes and long stretches of morass. The Pilica basin is a succession of marsh lands, and is known as one of the most unhealthy parts of Poland. The climate throughout the whole government is cold and moist, with a mean July temperature of 77 degrees Fahrenheit. The northern districts and the narrow valleys among the southern hills occasionally suffer from severe frosts.

"Nearly a million people are supported in the government, and its industry has been developing rapidly through recent years. Radom is rich in certain minerals, in iron ore and clay. Coal and zinc also occur. In peace times, iron and steel to an amount of some 700,000 tons is produced."

VAN WAGENEN'S

Charge Customers—Notice!

All Charge Purchases made during the remainder of this month will not appear on your bills until September 1st.

Announcement!

To All Talking Machine Owners!

You Can Get More For Your Money
In Buying Columbia Double-Disc Records

Whether you own a Victor Victrola or a Columbia Grafonola—all Columbia Records WILL PLAY on YOUR machine.

We will send to your home "on approval" a selected assortment of Columbia Records—and you can decide THERE whether you want any of them or not.

This New Columbia "Leader" $85
WITH INDIVIDUAL RECORD EJECTOR

And $100 buys this "Leader" Grafonola with 23 Columbia Double-Disc Records—46 Selections

At the rate of $5 a month and a small first payment you buy immediate possession of this incomparable instrument of music and a fine outfit of 46 selections (23 double-disc records.)

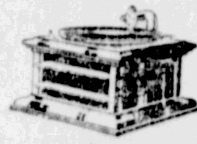

If you have been waiting for the opportunity to buy a good instrument sometime at your price, and on your terms, here it is. This new "Leader" is equipped with the many exclusive Columbia features, and will most certainly come up to your expectations for tone, tone volume and convenience.

Come in and hear it—or have us send it to your home on one week's approval.

$85.00 Easy Terms

This Columbia Grafonola
—OWN IT
FOR $1.00

The home without a talking machine is lacking a musical treat that it can ill afford to be without.

$1 This Week — Is All You Need!

The balance can be paid to suit your convenience—weekly, monthly or almost any way at all.

All Newest Columbia Double Disc
Dance Records—This Week $1.00

NEW RECORDS You Should Have—

Played in perfect dance time

COLUMBIA RECORD, No. 5688

(a) My Bird of Paradise, One-Step..... $1.00

(b) Paprika, One-Step..... $1.00

Columbia Record, No. 5680

(a) Shadowland, Fox Trot..... $1.00

(b) Roberts Globe, Fox Trot..... $1.00

Chambers of Commerce Confer.

At a conference of the presidents and secretaries of the Chambers of Commerce of the Hudson river valley held in Peekskill on Tuesday resolutions were unanimously adopted urging the deepening of the Hudson river from Hudson to Troy to twenty-seven feet. About forty representatives from nearly all the villages and cities in the valley were present. Secretary J. E. Canfield of the local Chamber of Commerce represented Kingston. Other cities represented were Albany, Poughkeepsie, Newburgh, Yonkers, Catskill, White Plains, Bronx, Walden, Middletown, Hudson, Wappingers Falls, Peekskill, Mt. Vernon and Haverstraw. An interesting address was delivered by Edward T. Coffin, secretary of the Albany Chamber of Commerce calling attention to the possibilities of a twenty-seven foot channel to the great population of the Hudson river valley. Vance Roberts, secretary of the Poughkeepsie Chamber of Commerce, was elected president of the conference and Mr. Coffin permanent secretary.

New Steamer Hydrant.

A gang of men from the water department under the direction of Superintendent Harrison were busy today installing one of the new steamer hydrants on West Chestnut street in front of Ulster Academy. This will make the seventh steamer hydrant to be installed in this city. Five of the new hydrants have been installed on Clifton avenue and one on the top of the West Chester hill. These hydrants have been installed especially for the use of the new fire auto truck of the fire department. The water department will install other steamer hydrants in the business sections both up and down town in the near future. These new hydrants are fitted so that connections can be quickly and easily made with the hose on the new auto fire truck.

Educational Criticism.

A deputation waited on the president of the British board of education some time ago to insist upon this point: "That the present system of education tended to fit the child more for the life of a clerk, and to unfit him for rural and agricultural life." And it might have been added that not only does it fit him for the life of a clerk, but it unfits him for getting beyond that. It has put him through a system that has kept back all tendency to develop any initiative of his own.—Montreal Herald.

Or, Why Not Dramatize the Name?

"I'd like," a trifle mordaciously said Grout P. Smith, "to see the name of Imri zumwalt, the able Bonner Springs editor, set to music. It would be immediately snapped up by all the cheap dramatic aggregations in the country, for use in playing the villain of the piece across the stage. Just divide it up into four syllables and repeat it slowly, and note the appropriateness."—Kansas City Star.

GET KNOWLEDGE

Knowledge in any line is good for one, but the knowledge of the business market—what is doing in the way of opportunity in the business world—is absolutely essential to the business man and woman.

This knowledge is bought for a trifle, for every day the newspaper prints in the Want Columns a splendid list of the business opportunities that are open.

Mr. Business Man, be you employer or employee, you cannot do without this knowledge, so make it a daily practice to read The Freeman Want Columns and success will surely be yours.

BECKER DECISION THIS AFTERNOON

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, July 28.—Justice John Ford will hand down a decision on Charles Becker's application for a new trial this afternoon, his secretary announced today. The secretary also stated that Justice Ford was of the opinion that it was unnecessary to call Becker or any other persons as witnesses before deciding the main issue.

To him was given as to the nature of the forthcoming decision, but lawyers who have followed the case closely expressed a belief that Becker would win his fight for a new trial.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

The funeral of Miss Lauretta Cox, the young girl drowned in the Rondout creek on Sunday, was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence, No. 617 Delaware avenue.

The funeral of Mrs. Cinderella H. DuBois, who died at the city home, was held this afternoon from the undertaker parlors of Stock & Cordts, the Rev. Mr. Morris officiating. The interment was in Montrose cemetery.

The funeral of Ida E. Speers was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence, No. 247 Clinton avenue. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. L. Leeper. The interment was in Montrose cemetery.

The funeral of George Weissensberger was held this morning from the residence of Angevine Palmatier at Esopus at 8:30 o'clock and at 9 o'clock from the Esopus Catholic Church. The interment was in St. Peter's cemetery, this city.

Mrs. Margaret Hall Van Keuren died on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Allen, in Mill Hill, Pa., aged 52 years. She is survived by her husband, Mrs. Allen, three brothers, Robert M. Hall of Mechanicsville, N. Y.; John Hall of Sparrowbush; Edward Hall of Ticonderoga; and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Rosenberg of Ellenville and Mrs. James Reynolds of Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Margaret Coons, wife of Jacob H. Coons, died Tuesday evening at her home, No. 7 East St., James street, aged 70 years. She is survived by her husband, two daughters Mrs. Walter France, and Mrs. Ada Kastner, of this city and one brother, Harry Kleffer, of New York city. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock from her late residence. The interment will be in Montrose cemetery.

Mrs. Catherine Hinsberger, widow of Nicholas Hinsberger, an old and respected resident of the lower section of the city, died on Tuesday evening at her home, No. 49 German street, aged 86 years and 7 months. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Frank Stenklein, and two sons, Frank and Jacob Hinsberger, all of this city. The funeral will be held from the late residence on Friday morning at 9 o'clock and from St. Peter's Church at 9:30 o'clock with interment in St. Peter's cemetery. The St. Ann's Christian Mothers' Society of St. Peter's Church, of which deceased was an honored member, will attend the services in a body.

LOCAL BASEBALL DOINGS.

Games Played or to be Played by the Home Teams.

The Young Wilburs defeated the Eddyville baseball team two games at Eddyville on Tuesday afternoon by scores of 6 to 2 and 5 to 4. The batteries for Wilburs were Lynch, Madden and Quikley and for Eddyville Bruck and Conway.

At Wilbur on next Sunday afternoon the Wilbur Feds will try to keep up their good record when they play the fast High Falls team. These two teams have met before with High Falls the winning end, but with "Tommy" Cullen in form the Feds hope to redeem themselves. A large crowd is expected as the yacht "Stultz" makes trips that will be convenient both going and returning.

ALLABEN.

Allaben, July 28.—George E. Yerry, contractor and builder, of Allaben, has just received the contract to build at once a large bungalow in Woodland for Miss Emily Dyett. Mr. Yerry has just finished one nice bungalow for her.

Joseph Yerry is doing a nice business in the livery with his new automobile.

George E. Yerry has a large gang of men working at Roxmore.

George E. Yerry has a 5-room dwelling house to build at Allaben for Clarence Peck.

Moving to Albany.

John C. Braun of No. 23 West Pierpont street is moving his family to Albany where they will reside in the future. Mr. Braun holds a position with the state board of tax commissioners at the state capital.

DIED.

COONS.—In this city, July 27, 1915, Margaret Ann, wife of Jacob H. Coons aged 70 years.

Funeral from the residence, No. 7 East St., James street on Thursday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment in Montrose cemetery.

HINSBERGER.—In this city, Tuesday, July 28, 1915, Catherine Hinsberger, widow of the late Nicholas Hinsberger.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral from her late residence, No. 49 German street, on Friday morning at 9 o'clock and from St. Peter's Church at 9:30. Members of St. Ann's Christian Mothers' Society are invited to attend the service at the church.

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Byron L. Davis of Saugerties was in town today on legal business.

Miss Jeanette Kolts of Haubrouck avenue is visiting in New York and Jersey City.

Leslie Johnson of Chicago is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Chauncey Smith, of Henry street.

George G. Maxwell and mother are at Norfolk, Winton and Hartford on their vacation.

Mrs. R. Fogel of Brooklyn is visiting at the home of Mrs. A. Gruber on St. Mary's street.

Miss Anna August and Mrs. John August and baby Madeline are visiting relatives in Amsterdam, N. Y.

Miss Lottie Humphrey of Poughkeepsie is the guest of Miss Helen Stephan at her home on West Chester street.

Mrs. Charles Fisk and daughter, Alice, of Jersey City have returned home after spending a week with Mrs. George Kolts.

Fred W. Gross of Delaware avenue is spending his vacation at Asbury Park, N. J. Mr. Gross is staying at the Coleman House.

Mrs. Ellen Abbott was conveyed from the Wagon Sanatorium to the Grand House in the city ambulance on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Sophia Salzmann and niece, Miss Edna Salzmann, of New York city are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Salzmann of Sycamore street.

Mrs. Leo Grogan left this morning for Bath, N. Y., where she will spend the coming month with Mr. Grogan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grogan.

Miss Anna Hyde and mother, Mrs. Irena Hyde of the Boulevard have returned home after spending a few days visiting friends in New York city.

Miss Ethel Ter Bush of Ellenville, who was operated on for appendicitis by Dr. Mark O'Meara, has recovered and returned to her home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLean of New York city and Mrs. J. Klenert of Augusta, Ga., are the guests of Miss Belle Greene of No. 156 Bruyn avenue.

Recorder Andrew Lang left on the noon boat for New York city and will spend his vacation fishing in the Maine woods. He will return about August 7.

John E. Short of Green street is receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter at the Benedictine Sanatorium. Mrs. Short was formerly Miss Mary Dorsey.

Mrs. John Watson and sons, Raymond and Joseph, of Rushing, L. I., and Mrs. Richard Atkins of West Park, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson, Sr., of No. 32 Montrose avenue, on Tuesday.

Mrs. P. L. Valentine and daughter, Jessie, of Millerton, N. Y., who have been visiting at W. R. Anderson's in Poughkeepsie, returned to their home Tuesday afternoon. They were accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Oliver, Mrs. Frank Oliver and Master Frank Anderson.

Mrs. George Rammung and daughters, Rose and Pansy, of 287 Washington avenue, are enjoying a two weeks' trip in New York city as the guests of Mrs. Rammung's sister, Mrs. James W. Larkin, of Washington Heights.

Silas S. Snyder and family have gone to their old camping grounds at Locust Heights Camp on the Snyder farm for the summer, an ideal spot, and many visitors call every day to rest and enjoy the cool shade of the trees and the breeze on the old Esopus.

THE JOINERS.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies.

The following lodges hold regular meetings this evening:

Kosciusko Lodge, No. 86, I. O. O. F., in Odd Fellows' Hall, 635 Broadway.

Aretas Lodge, No. 172, I. O. O. F., in Odd Fellows' Hall, 35 East Strand.

Blossoming Lilies Household of Ruth, No. 1,411, G. U. O. O. F., at 103 Cornell street.

Pratt Post, No. 127, Grand Army of the Republic, at 181 Green street.

Kingston Legion, No. 835, National Protective Legion, at 642 Broadway.

Ann's Branch, No. 963, Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association.

P. O. of A. Camp No. 39, at 5 Thomas street.

The forty-seventh annual convention of the Knights of Pythias of New York state was formally opened on Tuesday morning at Amsterdam. The following officers were elected: Grand chancellor, Clarence McGregor, Buffalo; grand vice chancellor, John R. Kapps, Troy; grand prelate, Charles W. Endel, New York; keeper of the records and seal, Alonzo Bodell, Haverstraw; master of exchequer, O. W. Midgough, Syracuse; master at arms, William Weisler, Brooklyn; supreme representatives, Frank J. Martin, New York and M. L. Holtz, Rochester; trustee of state Pythian home, John J. Vandemark, New York. Today will be the big day of the convention. The parade started at 1:30 this afternoon and it was expected that over 3,000 men would be in line. Kingston is represented at the convention by Mayor Canfield of Franklin Lodge and Charles W. Doy of Ulster Lodge.

Campers Missed Train.

The Y. M. C. A. campers from Lake Anawana were expected home today on the 12 o'clock on the Ontario & Western railroad but only two campers reached home at that time. The others managed to miss the train and will reach home on the 5:12 this evening. The boys had to walk from the camp to Hurleyville where they embarked on the train and the other boys did not walk fast enough to reach the depot in time.

Paul Klem Missing.

Tuesday evening Samuel Klem reported to police that his son Paul was missing from home. About a year ago while fooling with a gun in his home the boy discharged the weapon and shot his mother dead.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, July 28.—There was another upward rush in the leading stocks at the opening this morning. Bethlehem Steel made a sensational advance of 15 points in a few minutes to 262. Crucible Steel rose 2 1/2 to 52 1/2 and lesser gains were made in other stocks in this group. There was excited trading in U. S. Steel Common, the opening sales being recorded at 12,000 shares from 65 1/2 to 66, against 65 1/2 at the close yesterday, and in the next few minutes this stock sold at 68 1/2 with a later reaction to 65 1/2.

There was a continued demand at advancing prices for all the leading railway issues and wide openings were noted in several of these issues. The opening sales of St. Paul were recorded at 1,800 shares at 84 to 84 1/2 against 83 1/2 at the close yesterday. Union Pacific sold at the opening at 129 1/2 to 129 3/4 a gain of 1/2. Reading rose a point to 148, New Haven 2 points to 63 and Canadian Pacific a point to 146. The copper stocks were in better demand than for a long time. Utah Copper rose two points to 66, Anaconda 1 1/2 to 67 1/2 and Amalgamated 1/2 to 61 1/2. There were continued profit taking sales on a large scale in American, which after making a gain of 1/2 to 60 1/2, yielded to 58 1/2.

Noon—Sharp recessions were noted in the late forenoon in many of the leading industrials and war order issues. Western houses were heavy buyers of the railway stocks, causing vigorous advances in these issues. Reading advanced 1/2 to 147 1/2, Union Pacific 1/2 to 130, and a brisk demand for Southern Pacific. Canadian Pacific and New York Central was in evidence. St. Paul was freely supplied and declined to 82 1/2. Bethlehem Steel reacted from 265 to 265, and Westinghouse dropped 1/2 to 108. Crucible Steel, however, continued active and strong, this stock selling up to 58 1/2, against 49 1/2 at the close yesterday. Distillers Securities dropped 1/2 to 28 1/2, American Can 1/2 to 59 1/2 and Baldwin Locomotive was off a point, selling at 83 1/2. Money loaning at 1 1/2 per cent.

2:30 p. m.—The steel group was noted for its firmness in the late trading. U. S. Steel sold around 66 1/2 against 65 1/2 at the close on Tuesday. Bethlehem Steel held around 265 in the first half of the last hour, a net gain of 18 points. Crucible Steel was up ten points, selling above 59. Westinghouse was in good demand and made a substantial gain.

The market closed feverish. Governments unchanged; other bonds dull.

Quotations furnished by John D. Kline, Broadway and Strand, Kingston, N. Y. Tel. 35. Correspondents: C. M. Van Hyren & Company, members of Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York.

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS

Alaska Gold Mine	33 1/2
Amalgamated Copper	71 1/2
American Sugar	75 1/2
American Can	59 1/2
American Cotton Oil	47 1/2
American Ice Securities	24 1/2
American Locomotive	32 1/2
American Smelting & Ref. Co.	28 1/2
American Traction	109 1/2
American Telephone & Telegraph	122 1/2
Anaconda Copper Mining	67 1/2
Atchafalpa, Topeka & Santa Fe	101 1/2
Baltimore & Ohio	82 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	265 1/2
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	19 1/2
Calumet & Hecla	10 1/2
Canadian Pacific	130 1/2
Central Leather	41 1/2
Chesapeake & Ohio	41 1/2
Chicago & Great Western	14 1/2
Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul	12 1/2
Chicago & Northwestern	12 1/2
Chicago & Rock Island & Pacific	12 1/2
Chino Con. Copper	43 1/2
Colorado Fuel & Iron	40 1/2
Consolidated Gas, N. Y.	129 1/2
Corn Products	14 1/2
Delaware & Hudson	25 1/2
Denver & Rio Grande	28 1/2
Lehigh Valley	142 1/2
Mexican Petroleum	75 1/2
Missouri, Kansas & Texas	51 1/2
Missouri, Kansas & Texas, pfd.	15 1/2
Missouri Pacific	2 1/2
Miami Con. Copper	43 1/2
National Lead	43 1/2
Nevada Con. Copper	14 1/2
New York Central	88 1/2
N. Y. N. H. & H.	62 1/2
New York, Ontario & Western	27 1/2
Norfolk & Western	123 1/2
Northern Pacific	31 1/2
Pacific Mail	34 1/2
Pennsylvania Railroad	107 1/2
People's Gas, Chicago	49 1/2
Pressed Steel Car	22 1/2
Ray Con. Copper	22 1/2
Reading	148 1/2
Rep. Iron & Steel, pfd.	91 1/2
Rock Island	91 1/2
Southern Pacific	88 1/2
Southern Railway, pfd.	45 1/2
Studebaker	81 1/2
Tennessee Copper	37 1/2
Texas	132 1/2
Third Ave. R. R.	51 1/2
Union Pacific	129 1/2
U. S. Steel	68 1/2
U. S. Steel, pfd.	112 1/2
U. S. Rubber	43 1/2
Utah Copper	31 1/2
Virginia Car. Chem.	31 1/2
Western Union	89 1/2
Westinghouse Electric	110 1/2

SOCIETY NOTES.

Last evening in honor of Miss Edna Morse, Mildred Forst was the hostess of a very pleasant time. Among those present were Miss Helen Addis, Miss Jessie Goodsell, Miss Frances Constock, Miss Isabelle Gill and Miss Ruth Terwilliger of York, also the Messrs. Harold Byers, Ray Weber, Lloyd Rependahl, Ray Everett, Roland Fuller, Harry Halverson, Ray Elmendorf, Walter Gill and Harry Forst of New York.

Garden Club Visits Fine Gardens.

Mrs. Clarke Reed and Miss Mary Washburn of Saugerties entertained the members of the Ulster Garden Club on Tuesday afternoon, the meeting being unusually interesting in many ways. The club members gathered on the spacious porch of the home of Mrs. Reed, for their business meeting. Several of the members presented exceptionally fine specimens of Philox and Delphinium, culled from their various gardens. After the business session, Mrs. Reed's exquisite garden was visited and thoroughly enjoyed. Then a sort of floral pilgrimage was enjoyed, the beautiful gardens of Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Gillespie and Mrs. Washburn being visited. Words of appreciation and enthusiastic admiration seemed all too scarce to qualify the charm of these gardens. The guests returned to Mrs. Reed's, where refreshments were served out of doors, and the delightful afternoon was brought to a close. Mrs. Washburn being the guest of Mrs. Reed, as the party returned to Kingston.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES.

A representative of the secretary of state held an examination of chauffeurs this morning at the city hall.

George Kelder, patrolman on the section of state road from Shandaken to the Delaware county line, a distance of about seven miles, is making repairs to the section under his charge and placing the road in practically the same condition it was in when built. The road passes through one of the most beautiful sections of New York state and Mr. Kelder intends to have it the best kept section to be found in the entire state highway section.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Joseph Gruberg of St. Mary's street, who had the installation of electric wiring in Kaplan's shoe store on North Front street.

There will be a concert on the Edison diamond disc machine at the Kingston Hotel this evening at 8 o'clock. The concert will be under the direction of Walter E. Ingram, of the Edison laboratory in New York.

A meeting of the official board of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church is called for Thursday evening, July 29, at the close of the prayer meeting. It is desired that every member make an effort to be present as a question of vital interest will come before the meeting.

A Big Field Day at Cairo.

At Cairo fair grounds on Wednesday, August 4th, will occur the big field day. The Cairo Masonic Lodge has so long been making preparations for. The program will be a very interesting one, including three horse races, two races by Greene County horses, and a match race between Lady Kate, owned and driven by Judge Arthur Tompkins of Nyack, N. Y., and Patty Bird owned by Judge A. H. B. Seeker of Newburgh. These eminent jurists race for sport only, and the keenest rivalry exists between them. There will also be the funny peg race, in which the contestants are compelled to harness their horse, and hitch it to the wagon before they can drive the race a hundred yard dash, a sack race and a potato race. A big feature will be a baseball game between the Catskill Masonic team headed by Postmaster Heath, and the Cairo Masonic team headed by Worshipful Master Freese. This is probably the first instance where two Masonic teams contest for the prize. There will be special reduced rates on the railroad, a round trip ticket from Catskill return will be 50 cents. Admission to grounds 25 cents.

RUBY.

Ruby, July 28.—The Ladies of the Lutheran Church will have a lawn party Saturday evening, July 31, at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Staerker. Come along boys and don't forget to bring plenty of the "Needful" with you.

William Mason and family of New York have moved in Pine Tree Lodge for the summer.

Mrs. Floyd Gillespie and daughter, Beatrice, are spending some time at Atlantic City.

Beach Cole and lady friend of Albany are visiting his parents here.

Miss Lena Holblieb of Kingston is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Barbara Holblieb.

George Cole visited friends at Coxsack Saturday and Sunday.

Michael Shank made a business trip to Kingston on Tuesday.

Miss Elizabeth Young is spending some time at Lake Katrine.

Charles Young and Miss Kathryn Rock of Kingston were Sunday visitors at Mrs. Margaret Young's.

William Cole is visiting friends at Coxsack.

Aside From That She's All Right. A negro woman employed by a family on Prospect avenue was explaining to a neighbor what a good job she has and sought to say something pleasant about her mistress. "She's the best nigger lady in the world when she's well," the servant said, "but she's sick all the time."—Kansas City Star.

DOLLAR DAY DRAWS CROWDS

The Dollar Day sale which was advertised in the Freeman Tuesday evening was a decided success today. Early this morning crowds began to gather on Wall street and long before the usual time of the commencement of business the day's business was well under way. There were a number of unusual bargains offered in the various stores and the shoppers were eager to take advantage of them. All the stores which joined in the movement of dollar day were crowded and were doing a record breaking business. All the departments in the big stores which were busy all day long and there was no let up for the noon hour. Clerks said that it was the busiest day they had had in some time. Wall street this morning and all afternoon presented a busy scene with shoppers hurrying to and fro and to the usual number of dollar day shoppers was added a number of out of town people who had read the Freeman late evening and were eager to avail themselves of the opportunities offered by this sale. The train on the O. & W. which reached this city about ten o'clock was crowded with shoppers who went no farther than Wall street to do a dollar day's shopping. All of the merchants who entered into the Dollar Day agreement were decidedly pleased with the results of the day and the way the people entered into the spirit of the day according to some merchants warrants the establishing of another Dollar Day in the near future.

MATTERS BEFORE THE SURROGATE

In the surrogate's court, Surrogate Gill has granted letters of administration with the will annexed on the estate of Frank L. Gordon of the town of Marlborough, in Henry Sutherland of Stone Ridge, to place of Anna L. Gordon, widow of the testator, who died on July 6 leaving unadministered personal property not to exceed $5,000 in value. Van Etten & Cook appeared for the administrator.

In the matter of the guardianship of Almada Gordon, an infant under the age of 14 years, letters of guardianship were issued to Henry Sutherland of Stone Ridge. Van Etten & Cook appeared for the petitioner.

Estate Appraised.

County Treasurer Snyder, as appraiser under the taxable transfer act, has filed his report of appraisal of the estate of Elizabeth R. McElhane of the town of Wawarsing. The personal property amounts to $4,199.96; the real estate is valued at $4,355.85; the debts, commissions, expenses of administration, etc., amount to $559.27, leaving a net estate of $9,646.69, on which the inheritance tax amounts to $570. Belle M. Smith and Nelle K. McElhane, the executrices, were represented by Raymond G. Cox; Joseph H. Vandervly appeared for the state comptroller.

Reports also have been filed by County Treasurer Snyder as appraiser of the following estates.

Lavinia Freer of the town of Lloyd. The personal property amounts to $12,615.14; the debts, commissions, expenses of administration, etc., amount to $1,046.65, leaving a net estate of $11,568.49, on which the inheritance tax amounts to $655.69. Mary C. Freer, the executrix, was represented by Brininger & Canfield; Joseph H. Vandervly appeared for the state comptroller.

Isaac W. Buley of the town of Shandaken. The personal property amounts to $4,355.85; the debts, commissions, expenses of administration, etc., amount to $422.95, leaving a net estate of $3,932.90, on which the inheritance tax amounts to $155.55. Homer B. Buley, the administrator, was represented by John W. Eckert; Joseph H. Vandervly appeared for the state comptroller.

Eugene Lawson of the town of Marlborough. The personal property amounts to $7,312.92; the real estate is valued at $6,000; the debts, commissions, expenses of administration, etc., amount to $1,124.77, leaving a net estate of $12,189.15, on which the inheritance tax amounts to $415.25. Anna Lawson and May Lawson, the executrices, were represented by John Rusk; Joseph H. Vandervly appeared for the state comptroller.

Francis L. Downer of the town of Lloyd. The personal property amounts to $2,801.65; the real estate is valued at $2,000; the debts, commissions, expenses of administration, etc., amount to $435.59, leaving a net estate of $4,366.15, which is exempt from taxation. Charles H. Downer, the executor, was represented by Solomon G. Carpenter; Joseph H. Vandervly appeared for the state comptroller.

Cheerfulness Attracts. A man finds himself pleased, he does not know why, with the cheerfulness of his companion. It is like a sudden sunshine that awakens a secret delight in the mind, without its attending to it. The heart rejoices of its own accord, and naturally flows out into friendship and benevolence toward the person who has so kindly an effect upon it.—Addison.

His Handicap. "One of the penalties of approaching age is clumsiness," confessed Merton Morose, on whose head the frosts of time have been sitting down for quite a spell. "When I move carelessly about a room I knock over five things, on an average, and when I am especially careful I knock over ten."—Judge.

Straight Tip. New Man on the Road—What is the best time for me to see the head of this firm I'm working for, boy? Office Boy—Between the time he gets your sales account and the time he gets your expense account.—Puck.

Acting in One Lesson. "Do you think I could learn to be a moving picture actor?" "Sure you could. Just remember this one thing. A heaving chest denotes surprise, fear, hate or any other emotion."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.

CHAP. 385.

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to fees for the prompt and correct return and filing of birth and death certificates.

Became a law April 28, 1915, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section three hundred and ninety-five of chapter forty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to the public health, constituting chapter forty-five of the consolidated laws," as added by chapter six hundred and nineteen of the laws of nineteen hundred and thirteen, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 395. Fees of registrar and of the prompt and correct return and filing of birth and death certificates. Except as hereinbefore otherwise provided each registrar and each physician shall be paid the sum of five cents for each birth certificate properly and completely made out and registered and each death certificate properly and completely made out in accordance with the certification list of causes of death and returned and filed with the registrar and correctly recorded and promptly returned by him to the state commissioner of health as required by this act. And in case no birth or no death was registered during any month, the local registrar shall be entitled to be paid the sum of one dollar for each month for which he has so performed his duty. This act shall take effect immediately.

LAWS OF NEW YORK—By Authority.

CHAP. 386.

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to fees for the prompt and correct return and filing of birth and death certificates.

Get in Step

Mild Uniform Havana
10¢ for Perfectos - Little ones 5¢

Little Drops of Water

Little Grains of Sand
Will make you mighty wealthy if you own the Shore Front Land
(With Riparian Rights)
and THAT'S NO JOKE.

but actual experience
See the tremendous increase of value of Ocean front lots at Atlantic City,
Coney Island, Rockaway Park,
Long Beach and so on.

Go to the auction sale of 679 LOTS Including 234 OCEAN FRONT LOTS
with Riparian Rights,

BELLE HARBOR

Rockaway Coast, Queens Borough, N. Y. City,
12 miles from City Hall, 34 minutes from Flatbush Avenue Station
42 Minutes from Pennsylvania Terminal

MUST BE SOLD at Public Auction

Saturday, July 31st, 1915, at
On the Premises.

10% on Day of Sale, or 36 Monthly Payments May Be Arranged, or 70% Can Remain on First Mortgage.
Titles Insured Free.

For maps apply to JOSEPH P. DAY, Auctioneer,
31 Nassau St., N. Y. City.

Auburn

Don't Pay More—

MANY Auburn owners are rich, very rich, and can afford any priced car. But they are rich in common sense also. They know the difference between genuine and fictitious value. They want all the service and pleasures of motoring, but don't want to pay more than it is worth.

—But Get The Most For The Money

In the Auburn they enjoy all a motor car can give. Profit by the happy experience of thousands of Auburn owners. Owners who buy Auburns again when they want a new car. They have confidence in the fourteen year old reliable and successful, sound and safe company behind the car. By every day tests they know they have the most for the money. You won't make a mistake to follow their common-sense example.

Electric lights—electric starter—fully equipped without extra cost. Two, four and six passenger cars.

SIX $1550 FOUR $1075
ARTHUR FARISH, Local Agent,
Taxi and touring car service night and day
117-121 Broadway
Demonstration on request. Phone 209.

GAME WELL PROTECTED.

Great Efficiency of Local Division
Shown by Results.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Albany, July 28.—It's a bad place for game violators in the Hudson division of the department of fisheries and game, the ballwick of Division Chief Game Protector Charles D. Lee. The division includes the counties of Ulster, Putnam, Orange and Sullivan. At the regular monthly meeting of division chiefs in Albany, Chief Lee reported 33 actions begun and 33 won by the state, with a total recovery of $489. For the entire year of 1914 this division had in all 182 cases, with a recovery of $3,046.55. With three months still to run on the current year it is only nine cases behind the total of last year, while the recoveries are $790.55 in the lead.

Of the cases won during the month, thirteen were arrests of Italians for robbing the nests of song birds and eating the young. Others were for netting, spearing, operating set lines and hunting without a license.

Division Chief Lee reported that quail are more plentiful this summer than for many years, thus demonstrating the value of the five years closed season. While it is no doubt true, he said, that some killing of quail has been done, this has nevertheless been kept down to a minimum, and the birds are steadily increasing. Partridges and rabbits are also unusually plentiful, and the deer are doing finely.

The monthly meetings of the division chiefs are designed as efficiency meetings, at which full reports covering each division are read in full, and matters relating to game protection are discussed. They stimulate rivalry and make the experience of each division helpful to all the others. The fruits of the Albany meetings are passed on by the chiefs at monthly meetings of the protectors in each division. The results are apparent in the steadily mounting number of apprehensions, convictions and recoveries.

The total records for the month, covering the entire state, show 367 actions begun, as against 219 for the same period last year. Three hundred and fifty-two were won against 267 last year and the total recoveries were $5,441.85, as against $3,505.15 a year ago.

HURLEY.

Hurley, July 28.—The village is gradually assuming its summer aspect but not in such numbers as to overwhelm us. We are ever ready for more and welcome them heartily.

Mrs. Cameron of Allentown, Pa., a regular summer visitor, is at Mrs. Maxon's.

Mrs. Dr. Lyman and daughter of New York city, are expected at Mrs. Maxon's the first of the month.

Miss Elsa Miles and Miss Edith Townsend of Newark, N. J., who found their sojourn in Hurley so pleasant last summer, are with us at Mrs. Johnston's. They will be a welcome addition to the young people and have already fallen into pleasant lines and walks.

Mrs. Moog of Brooklyn is making her customary visit with her friend, Mrs. Van Sickle.

Mrs. Anna Wyncoop came up Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Webber, who has been a guest of Miss Ellen Smith, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Foertner has gone to Accord for a short stay there. The Rev. Mr. Foertner preached there on Sunday.

Mr. Lowitt of Brooklyn, a friend of Herbert Williams, is stopping at the Marble house.

Levan Smith came down from Shandaken over Sunday.

Messrs. Townsend and Hale of Newark are late arrivals in the village. They are at the Johnston house.

At the Brink's are Miss Schaeffer of Yonkers, Mrs. Sheeley of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Spohr of Kingston. Mrs. Edinberg and two children, who have been at the Brink place, have gone to Asbury Park.

Abram Dumond, who has been quite ill the last few days, is reported as feeling better.

Mrs. Abram Ten Eyck, who was taken ill last week, is again up and about.

This has been a young people's time lately and the young people are letting no opportunity slip by without utilizing it for a social and enjoyable gathering. A pinocchio club is now in full swing and although there is no settled organization, still it serves its purpose excellently well.

Thursday night the club was entertained by Miss Ethel Elmendorf at her home to meet her friend, Miss McGregor, of Centerville, where Miss Elmendorf is teaching school.

Over a score of young people enjoyed the hospitality. On Friday afternoon an all fresco picnic was held on the bluff overlooking the First Binnewater. The walk thither gave a keen zest for the bountiful supply of simple which were readily prepared over a fire built by them, all the more enjoyed for the unconventional fashion in which the frankfurters were prepared and handed out. No games were played excepting the "game of all games." Boats were secured and some pleasant boating parties made up but the "most interest centered about the frankfurters."

On Monday night Miss Clara Liden had invited the club to meet at the Mason homestead for a social evening. The stormy evening kept some away, but those who ventured out reported a most enjoyable evening.

While these give simply the larger events of the young people's gatherings it must not be supposed that smaller affairs are not continually occurring.

ALLIGERVILLE.

Alligerville, July 28.—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cross and son Richard, accompanied by Miss Laura Harnden and Miss Jeannette B. Garrison, motored to Greenkill Park the past Sunday.

Walter Brooks, who has been ill, is able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Switters called on friends in this place last week.

Miss Grace Garrison spent Sunday at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brady of Kingston spent the week end with his parents.

ALTERATIONS

No charge for alterations during this sale

NOT ADVERTISED

Many articles on sale not in this ad

WHAT'S LEFT SALE!

USE THE PHONE

Prompt attention and satisfaction guaranteed

DELIVERY

We deliver all merchandise

SAM BERNSTEIN & CO.

ON WALL STREET

PHONE 14

KINGSTON, N. Y.

What's Left	MEN'S	SUITS	YOUNG MEN'S	What's Left
$7.85	$9.85	$11.75	$14.75	$18.00	$22.00
Big values at low prices. Exceptionally fine material. Many patterns.	A serviceable business suit. Several models, a variety of patterns.	All wool suits in a variety of patterns. Conservative and extreme models.	Well tailored dress suit and good for all around wear. Exceptional value.	Attractive suits new hair line stripes and over plaids. Hand tailored.	Fine dress suits with character and snap. Tailored carefully, the fabrics are all wool.
Sale Price	Sale Price	Sale Price	Sale Price	Sale Price	Sale Price
$5.98	$7.95	$9.48	$11.95	$13.95	$17.45
FURNISHINGS	WHAT'S LEFT SALE				HATS

FURNISHINGS		WHAT'S LEFT SALE		HATS
Jack Rabbit Shirts	39¢ Regular 48c	Celluloid Collars	3¢ Regular 5c	Work Pants	$1.19 Regular $1.48
Police Suspenders	15¢ Regular 25c	White Handkerchiefs	3¢ Regular 5c	Socks	10¢ Regular 15c
Sample Hats	$1.88 Regular $3.00	Canvas Gloves	5¢ Regular 10c	Princely Shirts	39¢ Regular 48c
Four-in-Hand Ties	29¢ Regular 50c	Balbriggan Underwear	39¢ Regular 48c	Suit Case	69¢ Regular 98c
White Handkerchiefs	9¢ Regular 15c	Socks	7¢ Regular 10c	Emperor Shirts	79¢ Regular 98c
Special Work Shirts	29¢ Regular 50c	Matting Suit Cases	99¢ Regular $1.43	Pioneer Suspenders	19¢ Regular 25c
Arrow Dress Shirts	$1.15 Regular $1.50	B. V. D.'s	39¢ Regular 50c	Rubber Collars	13¢ Regular 19c
Boston Garters	13¢ Regular 25c	Litholin Collars	19¢ Regular 25c	Genuine Panama Hats	$1.98 Regular $5.00

BOYS

What's Left Sale

BOYS

Norfolk Suits	Bell Blouses	Straw Hats	Union Suits	Knickerbocker Pants	Wash Suits
$4.85 Now $3.98	Were 50c Now 39c	Were 48c Now 39c	39c Were 48c	Were 48c Now 39c	$1.50 and $2.00 99c
Guaranteed "no fade" material, sewed on belt, patch pockets	Shirts	Caps	Suspenders	Were 98c Now 79c	A lot of last season's suits, prices cut in two
$1.95 $2.88 $3.8	Were 50c Now 39c	25c Now 19c 48c Now 39c	10c Now 7c 25c Now 19c	$.98 $1.95 $2.88	$.79 $1.59 $1.99

One Dollar Deposit

Pay one dollar ($1.00) down and we will hold a suit or any other sale article until you are ready to take it.

Go The Limit

We do not limit our customers to the number of articles purchased. Buy all you want.

SAM BERNSTEIN & CO. What's Left Sale SAM BERNSTEIN & CO.

THEY SURELY ARE WONDERFUL LITTLE WORKERS---
FREEMAN ONE-CENT-A-WORD "WANT" ADLETS

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Kate Richards, late of the city of Kingston, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, John H. Markle and William A. Morey, the executors of the estate of said deceased, at the residence of John T. Cahill, her attorney, at No. 26 Clinton Avenue, in the said city of Kingston, Ulster county, on or before the first day of September, 1915.

JOHN H. MARKLE,
WILLIAM A. MOREY,
As Executors, etc., of
Kate Richards, Deceased.
V. B. Van Wageningen, Attorney, Kingston, N. Y.

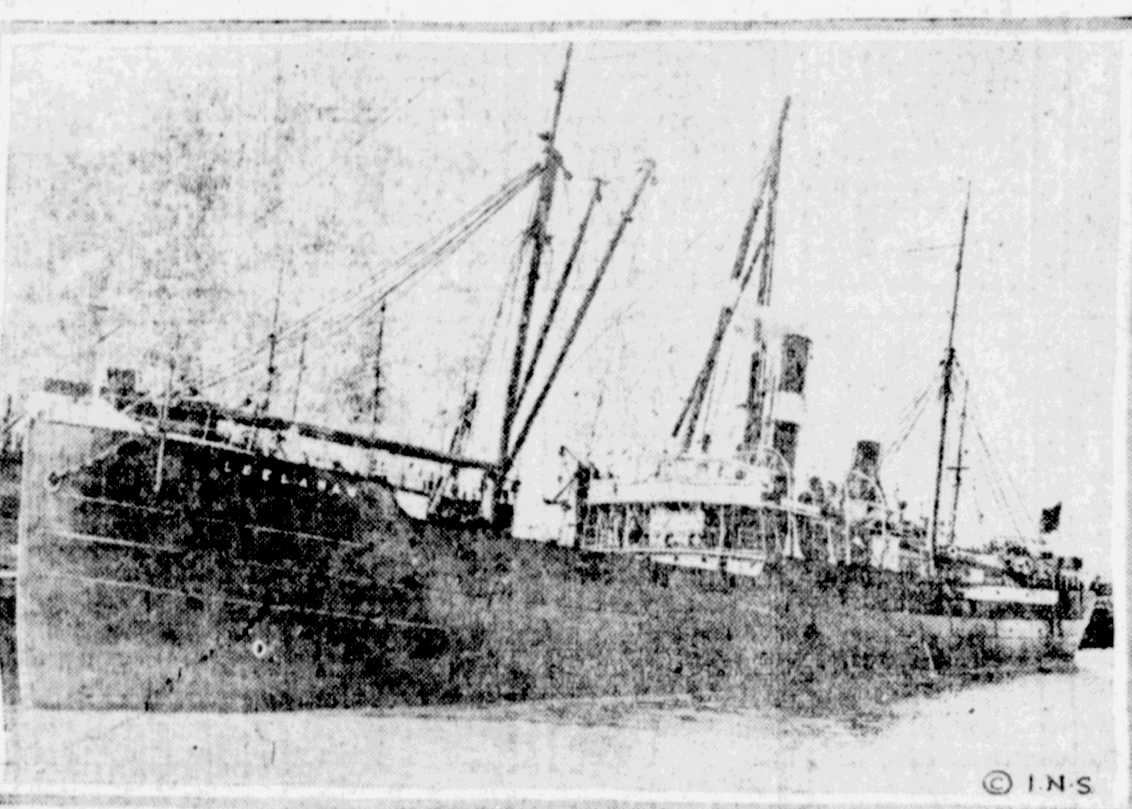

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Kate Richards, late of the city of Kingston, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, John H. Markle and William A. Morey, the executors of the estate of said deceased, at the residence of John T. Cahill, her attorney, at No. 26 Clinton Avenue, in the said city of Kingston, Ulster county, on or before the first day of September, 1915.

JOHN H. MARKLE,
WILLIAM A. MOREY,
As Executors, etc., of
Kate Richards, Deceased.
V. B. Van Wageningen, Attorney, Kingston, N. Y.

VICTIMS OF EASTLAND DISASTER.
THE TERRIBLE TOLL OF THE EASTLAND.

Interior view of the temporary morgue in Chicago after the Eastland disaster, showing a few of the 1,200 bodies recovered from the overturned hull. Row upon row of these stiffened bodies met the gaze of friend and relatives searching for their loved ones.

SS LEELANAW
LATEST AMERICAN VICTIM OF GERMAN U BOAT.

The American freighter Leelanaw, which according to dispatches from London, was torpedoed by a German submarine off Kirkwall, Scotland, and sunk on July 25. The commander of the German craft ordered Captain D. B. Deik and his crew of thirty-two to abandon their ship and then sent her to the bottom. The captain and the crew took to their boats and reached Kirkwall in safety.

The Leelanaw was owned by the Harby Steamship Company of New York, and was en route from Archangel, Russia, to Boston, with a cargo of flax. She had carried a cargo of cotton from the United States to Archangel previous to loading with the flax.

The German government in a manifest issued on April 18, declared flax a contraband of war.

CAPT HENRY PEDERSON.

ARRESTED CAPTAIN OF THE EASTLAND.

Captain Henry Pederson, of the steamer Eastland, which capsized in the Chicago river, drowning nearly 2,000 merry-makers, photographed just as he was about to be arrested by the Chicago police. Pederson and other officials of the line have been taken in custody pending the investigation into the cause of the accident.

Ancient Jokes.

"Did a man ever hold stakes," asks the Atchison Globe, "without making a remark about running away with the money?" And did one of the bettors, following someone's offer to hold the stakes, ever fail to counter with "Who'll hold you?"

TAKING BODY FROM EASTLAND

REMOVING VICTIMS FROM OVERTURNED EASTLAND.

One of the many heartbreaking scenes in connection with the work of removing the unfortunate victims from the overturned Eastland in the Chicago river.

All Cooks Look Alike

to the hungry man, but what a sad disappointment when the "kitchen queen" quits suddenly and the table looks anything but satisfying to a zestful appetite. When in doubt as to what to do, use The Freeman's "Help Wanted" Cent-a-Word Department.

A Sensitive Lover

By SARAH BAXTER

Barnard was walking the floor. When a man walks the floor with a knit brow it is evident there is something on his mind. And there was something on Barnard's mind—a good deal, in fact. He was a worshiper of Miss Brayton, and Miss Brayton was very ill. Barnard had heard that the doctors were desirous of making the experiment of a transfusion of blood, but had not thus far found any hearty person who was willing to give up his or her blood for the purpose.

Barnard had offered himself to Miss Brayton, and she had refused him. He was now ready to give her his blood or his life, if necessary, but would not this be placing her under an obligation which might cause her to reconsider her refusal? It seemed to him like taking an unfair advantage of her; that it would be an intrusion, an ungracious act, rendering him liable to a charge of trying to win her by unfair means. Besides, Barnard had always said that unless the girl he wanted wanted him, and that very badly, he didn't want her.

How would it do for him to give her his blood without her knowing from whom the gift came? Barnard stopped short in his walk and tugged at his mustache. Then he took up his hat, crumpled it down on his head and hurried away to Miss Brayton's physician.

After an interview it was settled that the invalid should receive Barnard's blood without knowing it. This could be done by performing the operation in a room dimly lighted, with Barnard's face covered. No one but the doctor and the couple operated on need be present, and the identity of the blood given need not be divulged.

The operation was performed, and Miss Brayton regained her health and strength. Barnard had the satisfaction of having saved her life, but saw no more evidence of a predisposition for him than before. Indeed, it was not long after the operation that he heard she was engaged to a man whom he had feared as a rival. This threw Barnard into despondency.

One evening at a young persons' gathering, at which Barnard, Miss Brayton and her fiancé, Mortlake, were present, Barnard heard a young lady near him say that there was a very pretty romance between Miss Brayton and Mr. Mortlake. Barnard picked up his ears, but failed to learn what the romance was. But a week later he met a friend who asked him why he had not got in ahead of Mortlake when Miss Brayton was ill and offered her his blood. Thus it came out that Mortlake had saved his fiancée's life.

This was a romance with a vengeance. Mortlake had undoubtedly won the girl by claiming to have saved her life at the risk of his own.

That evening Barnard was walking the floor in a more disgruntled state of mind than before. His rival had beaten him by a lie, and he was not in a position to set the matter right. True, he had only to refer the matter to the surgeon who performed the operation, but this would be interfering between a girl and her lover—a dog in the manger business that was far beneath a man of Barnard's sensitive honor. On the other hand, what right had he to permit the girl he loved to marry a man who had lied to get her?

Barnard, being in a quandary, remained in a quandary. These sensitive fellows who keep themselves in the background are usually overlooked by girls who, did they know the facts, would most assuredly prefer them. Barnard was too refined in feeling to save either himself or the girl he loved.

But one morning Miss Brayton, being indisposed, sent for her physician. During his visit she told him that there was a certain secret which she knew he was pledged to keep, but she knew it all the same. Then she announced to him her engagement.

"I congratulate him," said the doctor. "He took considerable risk for you and deserves you."

"How he must have loved me!" "I fancied he was doing it for love."

"It would have been ungracious for me to refuse him after the sacrifice he made for me."

"You have got a fine fellow. I took a fancy to Barnard the moment I laid eyes on him."

"Yes, Barnard. You're engaged to Barnard, aren't you?"

Miss Brayton's eyes grew as big as butter plates.

"Was it Mr. Barnard who saved me?" "Why—yes—I thought you knew."

The cat was out of the bag.

Soon after this revelation Mortlake received a note from his fiancée stating that she must break her engagement with him, since she had discovered that she could not love him.

Barnard heard that the girl he loved was free, but since she had pledged the doctor to keep mum he had no idea of the cause of the breaking of her engagement. One day he received a note asking him to call. He did so, and Miss Brayton frankly told him that in refusing him she had mistaken her feelings. Barnard was not slow in giving her an opportunity to correct the mistake. They were married, and it was not till the day after the wedding that his wife told him the secret.

"Why didn't you tell me that before?" he asked in an injured tone.

"Because I didn't propose that you should indulge in any more nonsense."

Willing to Let Well Enough Alone.

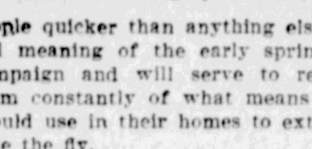

"Ever since dey done put mub husband in jail," said comely Sister Maudie Waddies, "I received so much sympathy fum de sistahs and so many compemments fum de brudders dat I's 'bout made up mub mind to leave him stay dar!"

Banish the Fly Plague

MORE than a score of giant fly traps were placed on street corners in St. Louis in order to educate the public to a fuller realization of the benefits to health that would result from a vigorous anti-fly campaign. In explaining the purpose of this object lesson the health commissioner said:

These traps, with the disease spreading flies they catch, will bring home to people quicker than anything else the full meaning of the early spring fly campaign and will serve to remind them constantly of what means they should use in their homes to exterminate the fly.

© National Geographic society.

people quicker than anything else the full meaning of the early spring fly campaign and will serve to remind them constantly of what means they should use in their homes to exterminate the fly.

THE ORIGINAL

MALTED MILK

The Food-Drink for all Ages

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged. More healthful than tea or coffee. Unless you say "HORLICK'S" you may get a Substitute.

NOTICE—A meeting of the stockholders of the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company will be held at the office of the Company, No. 276 Fair Street, Kingston, N. Y., on Friday, August 6th, 1915, at 2:30 o'clock P. M.

KINGSTON, N. Y., July 24th, 1915.

C. K. LOUGHRAN.

West Shore (River Division) and Wallkill Valley Branch

Fare and one-half-fare for round trip. Every Sunday to Sept. 19 except Sept. 5. Returning same day.

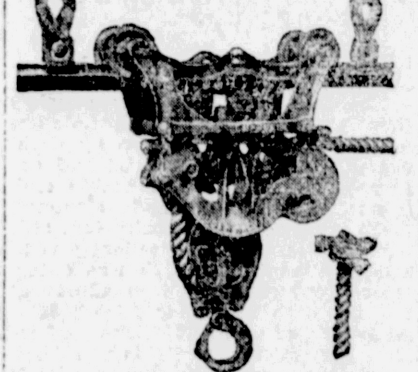

New York Excursions (From Kingston)

Ten Day Ticket, $2.60

One Day Ticket, 2.10

Daily, except Sunday, to September 30, inclusive. Going via West Shore R. R. Returning via Mary Powell Line.

Consult local ticket agents for time of trains and other information.

Hay Carriers FORKS, ETC.

Send for Catalog

CANFIELD SUPPLY CO.

Strand and Ferry Street

PROPOSITION NUMBER ONE.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, July 20, 1915.—Pursuant to the provisions of section four of article seven of the Constitution of the State of New York, section two hundred and ninety-five of the Election Law, and section six of chapter five hundred and seventy of the laws of nineteen hundred and fifteen, of which the following is a copy, will be submitted to the people for the purpose of voting thereon at the next general election in this state, to be held on the second day of November, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

FRANCIS M. HUGO, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 575.

AN ACT making provision for issuing bonds to the amount of not to exceed twenty-seven million dollars in addition to bonds heretofore authorized by the provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and three, for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, and the Champlain canal, and providing for a submission of the same to the people to be voted upon at the general election to be held in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen.

enacted by the Senate and Assembly on July 19, 1915, and approved by the Governor, Passed, three-fifths being present.

EXPLANATION—MATTER IN ITALICS IS NEW. MATTER IN BRACKETS [] IS OLD MATTER TO BE OMITTED.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, July 20, 1915.—Pursuant to the provisions of section four of article seven of the Constitution of the State of New York, section two hundred and ninety-five of the Election Law, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to section one of article two of the Constitution of the State of New York is to be submitted to the people for approval at the next general election in this state to be held on the second day of November, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

FRANCIS M. HUGO, Secretary of State.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and Assembly proposing an amendment to section one of article two of the constitution, in relation to qualification of voters.

Section 1. Resolved (If the Senate concur),

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. There shall be issued, in the manner and at the times hereinafter recited, bonds of the state in amount not exceeding twenty-seven million dollars in addition to the bonds heretofore authorized by the provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and three, which bonds shall be sold by the state and the proceeds thereof paid into the state treasury, and, except as hereinafter provided, so much thereof as shall be necessary shall be expended for the purpose of improving the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, and the Champlain canal, and for the procurement of the lands required in connection therewith, and for the payment of the improvement under such act. The said bonds shall be issued in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and shall bear interest at the rate of not to exceed four and one-half per centum per annum, which interest shall be payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year. The said bonds shall be issued for a term of not more than fifty years from their respective dates of issue, and shall not be sold for less than par. The comptroller is hereby charged with the duty of selling said bonds to the highest bidder after advertising for a period of twenty consecutive days, Sundays excepted, in at least two daily newspapers printed in the city of New York and one in the city of Albany. Said advertisements shall contain a provision to the effect that the comptroller in his discretion may reject any or all bids made in pursuance of said advertisement, and in the event of such rejection, the comptroller is authorized to readvertise for bids in the manner above described as many times as in his judgment may be necessary to effect a sale of the bonds. The said bonds shall be sold as the moneys may be required for the purpose of making partial or final payments on work contracted for in accordance with the provisions of this act and for other payments lawfully to be made under the provisions hereof. There is hereby imposed a direct annual tax to pay and sufficient to pay the interest on each bond issued under this act as it falls due, and to pay, and sufficient to pay and discharge the principal of each such bond within fifty years from the date thereof. The rate of such annual tax shall be five one-thousandths of a mill on each dollar of valuation of real and personal property in this state subject to taxation, for each and every year, to be levied and collected in the manner prescribed by law, and shall be paid by the several county treasurers into the treasury of the state. The proceeds of such tax shall be invested by the comptroller under the direction of the commissioners of the canal fund, and together with the interest arising therefrom shall constitute a sinking fund which, is hereby created. Said fund shall be used solely for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of bonds issued in accordance with the provisions of this act. Provided, however, that in case the legislature shall set apart in any fiscal year moneys in the state treasury as a sinking fund to pay the interest on the said bonds as it falls due and to pay and discharge the principal thereof, and such moneys shall be sufficient to provide a sum equal to the amount that would otherwise have been raised, as hereinbefore provided, in such fiscal year for such sinking fund, a direct annual tax for such year shall not be imposed and collected as required by the provisions of this act.

Section 2. The provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and three, and of the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, so far as they relate to the appropriation of lands for canal purposes; to the routes of said canals and the manner and method of doing the work; to the preparation of maps, plans, specifications and estimates; to the payment to contractors upon engineer's estimates; to the form of contract and bonds; to the change of plans for work under contract; to the measurements, inspections and estimates by the state engineer; to the duties and authority of the canal board; to the appraisal of lands taken for canal purposes; to the retention by the state of all waters, surplus or otherwise, created or impounded as a result of canal improvements or constructions; and all other provisions of said act and of acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto as well as the provisions of chapter one hundred and ninety-five of the laws of nineteen hundred and eight, as amended, relative to the special examiner and appraiser of canal lands, so far as they may be applicable and consistent herewith, shall apply to and govern the work authorized by this act.

Section 3. The legislature may appropriate to the cost of said improvement moneys heretofore coming from premiums on bonds or from the sale of abandoned canal lands, buildings or other property. In case, after the payment of the cost of said improvement, there shall remain any of such moneys unused, the remainder shall be applied to the sinking funds provided for the payment of canal bonds. All moneys realized from premiums on bonds or sale of abandoned canal lands, buildings or other property, realized from the sale of bonds shall be applied in the first instance to construction of the canal improvement.

Section 4. The legislature is hereby authorized to appropriate from the proceeds of the sale of said bonds such an amount as shall be necessary to reimburse the general fund of the treasury for any moneys advanced and paid out of such fund under appropriation made by the legislature of nineteen hundred and fifteen for the improvement of said canals.

Section 5. This law shall not take effect until it shall at a general election have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election; and the same shall be submitted to the people of this state at the general election to be held in November, nineteen hundred and fifteen. The ballots to be furnished for the use of voters upon the submission of this law shall be in form prescribed by the election law and the proposition or question to be submitted shall be printed thereon in substantially the following form, to-wit: "Shall chapter [insert the number of this chapter] of the laws of nineteen hundred and fifteen, entitled 'An act making provision for issuing bonds to the amount of not to exceed twenty-seven million dollars in addition to bonds heretofore authorized by the provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and three, for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, and the Champlain canal, and providing for a submission of the same to the people to be voted upon at the general election to be held in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen,' be approved?"

Section 6. I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript thereof, and of the whole of said original law. Given under my hand and the seal of the Secretary of State, at the city of Albany, this twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen. [L. S.] FRANCIS M. HUGO, Secretary of State.

FORM FOR SUBMISSION OF PROPOSITION NUMBER ONE.

Shall chapter five hundred and seventy of the laws of nineteen hundred and fifteen, entitled "An act making provision for issuing bonds to the amount of not to exceed twenty-seven million dollars in addition to bonds heretofore authorized by the provisions of chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and three, for the improvement of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, and the Champlain canal, and providing for a submission of the same to the people to be voted upon at the general election to be held in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen," be approved?

EXPLANATION—MATTER IN ITALICS IS NEW. MATTER IN BRACKETS [] IS OLD MATTER TO BE OMITTED.

STATE OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Albany, July 20, 1915.—Pursuant to the provisions of section four of article seven of the Constitution of the State of New York, section two hundred and ninety-five of the Election Law, notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to section one of article two of the Constitution of the State of New York is to be submitted to the people for approval at the next general election in this state to be held on the second day of November, nineteen hundred and fifteen.

FRANCIS M. HUGO, Secretary of State.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and Assembly proposing an amendment to section one of article seven of the constitution, in relation to the rate of interest upon debts authorized by act of the legislature and ratified by the people be approved?

Section 1. Resolved (If the Senate concur),

Shall the proposed amendment to section one of article seven of the constitution, permitting the legislature to alter the rate of interest upon debts incurred for some specific work or object authorized by act of the legislature and ratified by the people be approved?

§ Constitution and Resolution passed by 1914 Legislature read "debt."

§ Comma omitted in Resolution passed by 1914 Legislature.

CLASSIFIED
ADVERTISEMENTS

ONE CENT A WORD

Classified advertisements in this department will be inserted at the uniform price of one cent per word for each insertion. Advertisements of less than one week, one-half cent per word will be charged. No advertisement less than 10 words. Orders may be left at the following places:

CHARLES W. GARD, Post Office, N. Y.
W. W. WOOD, 220 Broadway.
W. W. WOOD, 220 Broadway.
W. W. WOOD, 220 Broadway.
W. W. WOOD, 220 Broadway.
W. W. WOOD, 220 Broadway.
W. W. WOOD, 220 Broadway.
W. W. WOOD, 220 Broadway.

ONE CENT A WORD

No Advertisement Less Than 10 Words.
All "Want" advertisements which appear in the Daily Freeman on Mondays will appear without extra charge in the Semi-Weekly Freeman and Journal on Thursdays. These which appear in the daily edition on Thursday will be repeated in the Semi-Weekly Freeman. Such extra and cents will be thoroughly secured.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Horse, wagon, harness. Walter S. Darling.

FOR SALE—Ford delivery car. Call Tel. 600-B.

FOR SALE—3-story brick house; all modern improvements; 21 Spring St. Inquire Harry E. Welner, 515 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Horse, wagon, harness, etc. 515 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Building sand at 638 Broadway. A. S. Bush.

FOR SALE—Berry and elder presses. Canfield Supply Co., Strand and Ferry St.

FOR SALE—Two fine henhouses and wire cages very cheap on account moving. 61 Elmendorf St.

FOR SALE—General store, with choice line of groceries; best location. Address "Special" Uptown Freeman.

FOR SALE—Sewing machine, mission dining suite, parlor tables, iron beds, chairs. 10 Janet St. Phone 605-M.

FOR SALE—Sewing machine and small concrete mixer. Canfield Supply Company, 16 and 18 Strand and 35 and 37 Ferry St.

FOR SALE—Gasoline engine for pumping. Canfield Supply Co., Strand and Ferry St.

FOR SALE—Registered full blooded Jersey cow, four years old, for sale. Julius John, Ulster Park.

FOR SALE—Nice, cheap country home, good six room house, barn, chicken house, nice garden and fruit. Good water. Only $600. M. A. Reis, 505 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Good family house in city, all in good condition. Only $1,500. Can be bought on easy terms. M. A. Reis, 505 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Roll top desk and household furniture. 115 Green St.

FOR SALE—Horse. 50 Downs St.

FOR SALE—The Ten Broeck Drug Co. Films for sale. Wanted developing and printing.

FOR SALE—New Mexican saddle and bridle. Address "Saddle," Freeman, Uptown.

FOR SALE—Houses and lots, cheap; good location. J. E. Klerstad, 44 Foxhall Ave.

FOR SALE—5 passenger Ford automobile. M. E. Van Amburg, 118 North Front St.

FOR SALE—Horse, weight about 950. C. Ketterer, 115 Abael St.

FOR SALE or to lease on very easy terms. Handicks Hay Press factory. Shattuck Realty Co.

FOR SALE—Farms, all sizes and prices. M. A. Reis, 505 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Lots, Stuyvesant St. John White.

FOR SALE—Slab wood at Eddyville Sawmill.

FOR SALE—Gasoline engine and pump. 115 North Front St.

SAVED cord wood; $3 per two-horse load. F. A. Waters, Jr., Highland Ave. Tel. 540. 70c a yard, delivered.

NEW TAXI SERVICE

TOURING car, $1.50 per hour. Tel. 1404-R. Day and night.

WANTED

WANTED—50 DRAWHANDS, BEGINNERS, PAID WHILE LEARNING. HERBERT BRUSH MFG. CO., 14 THOMAS ST.

WANTED—Operators: experienced on hemming. Fuller's Shirt Factory, Pine Grove Ave.

WANTED—Store shelving and fixtures. O'Reilly's, 530 Broadway.

WANTED—150 chickens, 2 or more weeks old. Phone 1721.

WANTED—500 DOBSONS, GOOD SIZE. F. W. DIEHL, JR., 702 BROADWAY.

WANTED—Men and women I have pleasant, profitable work for one representative each town or city, either all or spare time. Money and experience unnecessary. Representatives make $12 to $15 per week. Manager, Kleen-A-Gene, Washington Falls, N. Y.

WANTED—At once, a first class dishwasher and kitchen girl. Apply by telephone to Mrs. J. C. Gray, Tannersville, N. Y.

WANTED—Photos for developing and printing. Photo supplies. O'Reilly's, 530 Broadway.

FURNISHED ROOMS

FURNISHED rooms. The Bryant, 51 Green St.

FURNISHED ROOM—50 Van Buren St.

FURNISHED housekeeping rooms; rooms and board. 405 Washington Ave. Transients.

FURNISHED ROOMS for light housekeeping. 156 St. James St.

FURNISHED ROOMS—With or without board. 180 Albany Ave.

FURNISHED ROOMS—320½ Wall St.

FURNISHED ROOMS—75 Pearl St.

TO LET—Furnished rooms with board. 77 Main St.

FURNISHED rooms, 102 Hoes St.

FURNISHED rooms with board, 28 Adams St.

BOARDING HOUSE

SHERWOOD Lodge, 317 Clinton Ave. Boarding house.

RHYMER'S TAXI SERVICE

Rhymer Taxi Service, 1015 Hudson. Six new passenger touring car for hire. Telephone 144-M.

FOR SALE OR TO LET

FOR SALE OR TO LET—House, 224 West Chester St. W. D. Costello.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY
JULY 28

A woman of this birthdate has a strong love of children and home. She has a good opinion of her own judgment and does not like to be interfered with.

While an angel in mildness and patience, yet if you should attack the reputation of her children or one whom she might love, she would become almost ferocious.

The birthstone of this birthdate are the diamond and ruby. The governing planet is Leo. Planetary forces governing this birthdate are strongly for success in art and music and in commercial lines.

It would be well to advertise in The Freeman Want Ads homes for sale and houses to rent. Those desiring employment also will find their requirements in The Freeman Want Ads.

ONE CENT A WORD

No Advertisement Less Than 10 Words.

LOST

LOST—$16. Finder please return to 179 Tremper Ave. Liberal reward.

LOST—On Saturday, July 24th, rear lamp and license No. 96010, from car. Finder please notify Miss Alida M. Osterhout, Stone Ridge, N. Y.

LOST—Black Pomeranian dog. Stuyvesant Garage.

LOST—Pay envelope, $21. Saturday afternoon between chain ferry and Madison House. Reward if returned to Freeman office. Sylvanus Kendrick.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. 19 Johnston Ave.

WANTED—Lady to do light laundry and pantry work. Kirkland.

WANTED—Operators: experienced on hemming. Fuller's Shirt Factory, Pine Grove Ave.

WANTED—Woman to do cooking. 142 Main St.

WANTED—Young woman for general housework. Apply 1 and 3 Canal St.

WANTED—Kitchen girl: one who can wait on table. Apply Rhinebeck Hotel, Rhinebeck, N. Y.

WANTED—An experienced waitress. Apply at once head waitress, Eagle Hotel, 42 Thomas St.

WANTED—Right hand rollers, bunch makers and strippers. J. E. M. Walker, 42 Thomas St.

TO LET

TO LET—House, 120 Henry St.; all modern improvements. Inquire of Mrs. Henry Weeks, 52 Clinton Ave.

TO LET—Flat, 21 E. St. James St.; all improvements.

TO LET—Whole or part of newly furnished apartment to refined couple. Central located. Terms reasonable. Phone 1747-M.

TO LET—5 room house and barn. Inquire Wm. Ryan, 453 Washington Ave.

TO LET—29 Janet St. Inquire 29 Janet St. Telephone 1738-W.

TO LET—Cottage to let. Inquire J. E. Diamond & Co.

TO LET—Upper floor, 15 Belvedere St.

TO LET—Five room flat on first floor; with cellar. Apply 37 Stuyvesant St.

TO LET—Two flats, 35 Hoffman St., near High School.

TO RENT—From Aug. 1st, 155 Elmendorf St., lower floor, all improvements. Eugene O. F. Winne, 155 Albany Ave.

TO LET—One large furnished room; furnished new, for two adults. 49 Garden St.

TO LET—4 rooms; centrally located. Telephone 1052-J.

TO LET—5 rooms and bath, all improvements; hot water heat. 205 Babcock Ave.

TO LET—Part of cottage, 29 Liberty St.

TO LET—Store and office, 456 Broadway.

TO LET—Floor, all improvements. 62 Hoffman St.

TO LET—House, 12 E. O'Reilly St. Apply 446 Broadway.

TO LET—Apartments, Delaware Ave. Spring St. Home St. and 308 Broadway. Houses 106 Fair St. and 35 Lindsey Ave. John N. Cordis Estate.

FOR RENT—House, with or without barn, 207 Washington Ave.; all modern improvements. Apply 193 Clinton Ave. Phone 502-W.

TO LET—Seven rooms and bath, all improvements. 193 Elmendorf St. Telephone 611.

TO LET—Nice cottage, 223 Downs St. Water, toilet, gas, $15 month. Inquire C. D. Clinton, 221 Downs St.

FOR RENT—Crosby residence at No. 112 W. Chestnut St.; all improvements. Inquire at 574 Broadway.

TO LET—Flat, 114 Tremper Ave.

FIVE ROOM flat, St. James St., all improvements. Apply N. D. J. Murphy.

MISCELLANEOUS

NEW 7 passenger Overland for hire. Tel. 541.

Weekly dance every Friday night at Baldwin's Casino. Rifton, Rock Orchestra.

CARRO & Latta, barbers, Railroad Ave., wish to announce that they again have three barbers in attendance.

All nurses wishing to register can do so at the General Registry for Nurses at The Wauna Sanitarium, Inc., 231 Albany Ave., Kingston, New York. Phone 1721.

PIANOS and organs tuned and repaired. Electric and foot power player work. A. Fante, O'Reilly's Book Store, 530 Broadway.

KINGSTON Tactile Service, 50 cents for 1 or 2 persons; day or night. Tel. 541.

PIANOS tuned, $1.25. Martha 156 Prospect St. Phone 1702-W.

FURNITURE storage. Monce-proof, sanitary, fire-proof. Frederick C. Winters, Kingston. Phone 1493-J, or call Stuyvesant Garage.

Large 20 room house on best street, city of Kingston, suitable for boarding house or sanitarium. Exchange for small house. Box 74, Rosendale, N. Y.

MORAN Business School. Day and evening sessions. A business education pays good dividends. How are you investing your spare time?

ADVERTISEMENT WRITING

"WATCHFUL waiting" does not bring home the business. It requires persistent "scouting" with ammunition such as my wording of advertisements, booklets, circulars, etc., to "bring home the bacon." My terms are reasonable. I am not "tied to" any one store or branch of business, but I will do anything that results for all who seek my services and are willing to do their share toward business betterment. George M. Zellmer, care of Kingston Freeman.

DUTCH ARMS
ENTERTAINMENTS

The committee in charge of the Dutch Arms monthly entertainments have completed arrangements for the coming season. They have made their booking through the Eastern Empire Lyceum Bureau and all the various numbers are of the highest class. All are entertainers of recognized ability and the entertainments of the coming year will be on the same high plane that they have always been in former years.

The first number will be given on Friday, October 8 and will be a performance by the Famous Swanee River Quartet with John H. Gantt. It is considered the best negro quartet in America and renders old southern melodies, pastimes and stories, old plantation and camp meeting songs and banjo, guitar and mandolin selections. Mr. Gantt is considered a wonderful basso.

On Wednesday November 10, the Dutch Arms will be entertained by Brush, the Great. Brush is a man of mystery and mystifies his audience during the whole evening. To make matters more complicated he passes everything he uses through the audience and then performs the unbelievable things before their eyes with the same materials that he has presented to them for inspection. Besides being a man of mystery Brush is also somewhat of a joker and keeps his audience in one ripple of laughter when they are not absorbed in his mystic mysteries. His apparatus has cost many thousands of dollars. The Otterbein Male Quartet Company will entertain the Dutch Arms on Wednesday, December 15. This quartet has been on the Lyceum circuit for some time and has also appeared in Chautauqua engagements in thirty-nine states. They have covered the United States from the lakes to the gulf and from coast to coast. They come highly recommended.

The January entertainment will be given by Pitt Parker, an artistic entertainer, who being a crayon wizard will give a crayon recital. He also does some clever work with clay. He keeps his audience interested all the time and has a pleasant entertaining manner which is bound to win. His work is highly recommended in places where he has performed. The February entertainment is in the form of the Lawrence-Lowry entertainers. Miss Lowry is a reader of no mean ability and will give a forty-five minute version of "The Girl of the Golden West." Miss Frances Lawrence, is the other part of this entertainment and is a harpist that has won wide recognition of her ability. She is well-known in Chicago musical circles and is a pupil of Waltrud Singer, of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

With this wonderful list of entertainers ahead the Dutch Arms will doubtless have a very successful season next year.

POLITICAL POT
BEGINS TO BOIL

The political pot will soon be boiling in Kingston and certificates of designation for the offices to be voted for this fall must be filed with the secretary of state and the custodian of primary records between August 27 and September 7. This year Kingston will vote for a mayor, members of the common council and members of the board of supervisors. It is expected that Mayor Canfield will seek the re-nomination for mayor on the Republican ticket. Two men are being spoken of for the nomination on the Democratic ticket for mayor and they are George Washburn and George Burgevin. It is not known at this time if either will accept the nomination if offered them.

CRUISER SAFE FROM TYPHOON

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, July 28.—The cruiser Saratoga, which, with the third-class cruiser Cincinnati, was in the path of the typhoon off the China coast, was in no real danger, Admiral Winterhalter of the Asiatic fleet today reported to the navy department.

The Cincinnati had made sufficient steam to keep her under control. The navy department pointed out that no steam vessel under power ever had been harmed by one of these storms, as the path of a typhoon is not broad and the vessel can move out of the way.

One Year Ago Today.

July 28, 1914, Austria declared war on Serbia.

This action precipitated the general European conflict, of which the end is not yet in sight.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT, Southern District of New York, in the matter of William Z. Rhodes, of the Town of Marlboro, Ulster County, N. Y., in said District, bankrupt. No. 2364.

To the creditors of said bankrupt: Notice is hereby given that on the 23rd day of July, 1915, the said William Z. Rhodes was duly adjudicated bankrupt, and that the first meeting of creditors will be held at the office of the undersigned Referee in Bankruptcy, No. 270 Fair Street, Kingston, N. Y., on the 7th day of August, 1915, at 10 o'clock A. M. for the purpose and to the effect of claims to choose a trustee, to fix the amount of the trustee's bond, examine the bankrupt if desired, and to transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

Dated, July 28th, 1915.

AMOS VAN ETTEN, Referee in Bankruptcy.

CHANGES MADE IN FIREMEN'S WORK

The board of fire commissioners met at the central fire station Tuesday evening and conducted only routine business. It was decided that since the new motor fire truck is in operation that it would be for the good of the service to take Cornell Hose Company off calls to Boxes 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19, all of which are calls to Ponckhockie, and to remove Wiltwyck Hose Company from calls to Boxes 96 and 212, which are calls out on Hurley and Lucas avenue. The new motor truck will take care of these calls. The other companies however will respond to second calls to these boxes and will take first calls there when the motor truck is out on a call. The new truck is being kept at the central fire station and the old horse drawn truck is being held in reserve for emergencies and is all equipped. This afternoon the water commissioners and the fire commissioners are attending a test on Stephen street near Clifton avenue which is being made under the direction of Fire Chief Chipp. The purpose of the test is to determine the efficiency of the new steamer hydrant recently installed on that street and which the board of water commissioners is contemplating installing on all of the principal business streets of the city. The outcome of this test will largely determine the extent of that work.

NEW WAREHOUSE FOR BISCUIT CO.

The West Shore railroad has a force of men busy laying a new switch from the main tracks leading to the site of the proposed distributing depot to be erected on TenBroeck avenue by Charles F. Gray for the National Biscuit Company. Plans for the new distributing plant have been drawn by George E. Lowe, the Fair street architect, and the contract will be let in the near future. The new building will be a one story brick structure 40 by 120 feet, with all modern improvements. The plant will be used by the National Biscuit Company as a distributing agency for Ulster county and the surrounding territory. It will be built on TenBroeck avenue opposite the plant of the Standard Oil Company.

CONFERENCES ON GERMAN AFFAIRS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Berlin, July 28.—Important conferences relative to German-American relations took place today. James W. Gerard, the United States ambassador, conferred several times both with Dr. von Jagow, the foreign minister, and Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the chancellor.

Hunting Ground for the Author.

The hunting ground for the author in search of a title is the Bible. Hall Caine has drawn therefrom "The Woman Thou Gavest Me," "The Prodigal Son," "The Scapegoat." Miss Marie Corelli went to the same source for "Wormwood" and "Barabbas." Miss Braddon for "One Thing Needful" and "Thou Art the Man." Marion Crawford for "Whosoever Shall Offend." Whyte Melville for "Black, but Comely." Thomas Hardy for "The Lads of the Lads." Klipping for "Moby Dick." W. J. Locke for "Where Love Is." William Black for "A Daughter of Her." William Le Queux for "As We Forgive Them." Walter Besant for "Children of Gideon" and "The Fourth Generation," and so on. The list might be greatly prolonged.—Pittsburgh Press.

De Quincey's Monotonous Diet.

De Quincey's style was varied enough, but his diet was monotonous to a degree, his dinner for the last thirty years of his life invariably comprising some loin of mutton, boiled rice and coffee. Every day he interviewed the cook and told her to prepare these dishes, adding: "If you do not remember to cut the mutton in a diagonal rather than a longitudinal form, consequences inculcating distressing to my system will arise and will prevent me from attending in matters of overwhelming importance." No wonder the bewildered Scotsman when thus drenched with polysyllables for the first time was heard to remark, "The body has an awful sight of words."—London Chronicle.

Making a Hit.

An advertisement of a recent sale ran thus: "The choice collection of bric-a-brac offered for sale is so unusual that it may safely be said each place in it is calculated to create a sensation among people of artistic sense. Immediately on entering the room the visitor's eye will be struck by a carved walking stick of great weight and beauty."—Christian Register.

Something in This.

"I think these campfire girls are learning some useful lessons." "For instance?" "After bending over a smoky campfire a girl won't be half so apt to shy from the kitchen range."—Kansas City Journal.

His Relationship.

Kind Party—And is that poor man sitting in the stairway your brother? Frazzled Freddy—No, sir; he's me stepbrother.—Chicago News.

GERMAN NEWSPAPER WARNED TO BE GOOD

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Berlin, Via Amsterdam, July 28.—Increasing bitterness of comments in the German newspapers on the American note caused the government to take action today. Editors of newspapers which have been attacking America were warned to curb their utterances. Discussion of the note is not forbidden, but it must be of a more moderate tone.

Herr von Jagow, the foreign secretary, had before him today the note presented by Ambassador Gerard, making inquiries as to an attack alleged to have been attempted by a German submarine upon the British liner Orduna while it was carrying American passengers. It will be referred to the admiralty for a report. No action has yet been taken on the general submarine warfare note from the United States. As several departments will have to be consulted before any reply is made it may be the middle of August before any reply receives definite shape.

News of the sinking of the Leonanaw arrived here today, but in the absence of an official report on the matter attaches of the foreign office declined to discuss it.

New York Produce Market.

Wheat—Irregular. Sept. 1.15½; No. 2 red winter 1.18 f. o. b. spot to arrive.

Corn—Irregular. No. 2 in elevator 90½c; No. 3 yellow 91½c; c. i. f. 10 days' shipment.

Oats—Irregular. Fancy white clipped 65½c; ordinary white clipped 65½c; No. 2 western, 1.07c; c. i. f. New York; state, 1.09 f. o. b. New York.

Barley—Steady. Malting 78c; c. i. f. Buffalo.

Hay—Irregular. No. 1 $1.35 @ $1.37½; No. 2 $1.20 @ $1.25; clover mixed $1.27½ @ $1.30.

Stra—Steady. No. 1 straight rye 60 @ 70c.

Flour—Quieter. Spring patents, $6.40 @ $6.60; straight, $6.15 @ $6.25; clear, $5.85 @ $6.00; winter patents, $5.40 @ $5.60; straight, $5.20 @ $5.30; clear, $4.90 @ $5.10.

Potatoes—Firm. White, nearby, $1.00 @ $1.50; new seconds, Bermonds, 40 @ 75c; southern, $1.00 @ 1.25.

Dressed Poultry—Quiet. Broiler, 18 @ 22c; chickens, 19 @ 22c; fowls, 12 @ 17½c; ducks, 14 @ 21c.

Live Poultry—Unsettled. Chickens, 20 @ 23c; fowls, 17 asked.

Butter—Weaker. Creamery extra, 26½; creamery firsts, 24½ @ 26c; higher scoring, 27 @ 27½; state dairy, tubs, 20 @ 26c; process extra, 22½ @ 24c; creamery specials, 22 @ 23c.

Eggs—Weak. Nearby white, fancy, 28 @ 29c; nearby brown, fancy, 24 @ 26c; extras, 23½ @ 25c; firsts, 19 @ 20½c.

Milk—The nominal wholesale price is 3 @ 3½ cents a quart delivered in New York.

Chicago Grain Market.

Wheat, July, $1.14; September, $1.07½ @ $1.08; December, 64½ @ ¼.

Corn, July, 80½ bid; September, 74½; December, 64½ @ ¼.

Oats, July, 55½; September, 38½ @ ¼; December, 39 @ 40c.

Beat your neighbors getting your wash on the line.

Use

FELS-NAPTHA

soap

and do a big day's washing in less than half a day.

You can! Try it and see!

Use cool or lukewarm water. Don't hard-rub the clothes.

Don't boil.

It's as easy as it sounds.

Fels & Co., Philadelphia.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 28.

Sun rises, 4:49; sets, 7:15.
Weather, fair. Humidity, 56 to 62.

The Temperature.

The lowest point registered by the Freeman's thermometer last night was 64 degrees. The highest point registered up to noon today was 82 degrees.

Weather Forecast.

Washington, July 28.—Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday, with probably showers; not quite so warm on the coast; light to moderate variable winds.

A. B. MERRITT

429 Washington Avenue,
1 Door From Hurley Ave.
Telephone 1689

Weak Fish, 3 lbs for	25c
Halibut Steak	18c lb
Fresh Mackerel	12½c lb
Steak Cod	12½c lb
Whole Cod Fish	10c lb
Fresh Sardines	8c lb
Boston Blue Fish	10c lb
Eels	12½c lb
Sweet Potatoes	10c qt
Lettuce	5c head

DR. HAASE'S VIEWS.

He Tells Why His Diagnosis Was Not a Mistaken One.

670 Broadway, Kingston, July 27.
The Editor of The Freeman, Kingston.

Dear Sir:—Having perused today's issue and read your report on Peter Darwack and having been one of the examiners who advised his commitment to Middletown and to the lay readers it might impress that Dr. Desmond's and my own finding in this case was a mistaken diagnosis and therefore I beg to point out to you that we believe that he is suffering from phobia, so called partial melancholia, and which might lead to suicidal or homicidal melancholia and to this diagnosis Dr. O'Meara concurred. Now as you stated that the examiners appointed by the court found that Darwack was suffering from incipient paresis and therefore please explain in your next issue that paresis usually begins with inflammatory changes in the adventitia of the blood vessels of the brain, and degenerative changes in the brain substance follow and when it progresses it gets to act as a maniacal stage and ends by dementia and paralysis and therefore it is insanity. And if a report to the public is given it is only fair to Dr. Desmond and myself that the whole text of Judge Jenkins's expressions and opinions of the case be given. You will no doubt see the point of my reply.

Yours truly,
H. W. A. HAASE.

A Saugerties Scrapper.

Clarke Winne was brought to the county jail Tuesday afternoon from Saugerties, where he had been sentenced by Justice Childster to serve sixty days for being disorderly. He became intoxicated in Saugerties and later became embroiled in a fight, when he was taken in by the Saugerties police.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Open Friday evenings during July and August; closed Saturday at 1 p. m. GREGORY & CO.

PLANT

Celery plants late and early by August first. Get the best varieties of us. VALENTIN BURGEVIN, INC., Fair and Main streets.

SOUVENIRS.

A nice line of novelties of all kinds. O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

FAMOUS BOSTON PIANOS

Hallet & Davis, Conway, Lexington and other high grade pianos and player pianos. E. F. KUEHN, 221 Tremper avenue.

FREE PRINTING PAPER

Given with each purchase of photo supplies, cameras, films, plates and all photo supplies. O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

THE FREEMAN IN NEW YORK.

The Freeman is on sale each evening by 10:30 at Hoteling's News Stand, north end Times Building, 43rd street and Broadway, New York city. This stand remains open until midnight.

Awnings, Upholstering, Furniture Repairing, Auto Tops, Re-covering, HENRY EIGHMEY, 94 1/2 1st and avenue.

New Victrola records. Victrolas from $15 to $20 to be had at W. H. RIDER'S, Wall street.

The AUTO PIANO—the best of player pianos—can be had at W. H. RIDER'S, 304 Wall street.

Kodak and Camera Supplies at McHride's Pharmacy, 634 Broadway.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, July 28.—Eddie Plank deserves the title of the "greatest left handed pitcher" that ever lived.

For 15 years—1901 to 1914—the wonderful southpaw was the Mackinac mainstay. For 15 years he pitched the kind of baseball that helped the Athletics to win a large flock of pennants and a number of world champion titles.

And now, in his 41st year, and his 16th in baseball, he is the pitching sensation of the Federal League. Cast adrift by his old boss, he connected with a job in the new league and is back at his old trick of rolling up a huge winning percentage.

The most amazing part of Plank's work this year is the fact that he is pitching to batters who are new to him. He hasn't the benefit of the experience gained in other years to help him. He doesn't know the strength and the weakness of the batters who face him, as he did in the American League. He must learn as he goes. He must pit the old southpaw whiff, absolutely unaided, against the Federal League clouters. And he has done so successfully.

Plank is one of the very few left handers who has no eccentricities. He has been normal in his conduct, a gentleman on the ballfield and off, and all through the 16 years of his major league career he has graced the game by his presence.

The last of the Deleahants has passed from major league view, and for the first time in 25 years no member of the famous baseball family is listed among the big league stars.

There were five Deleahant brothers, all of them trained on the sandlots in Cleveland, and every one of the five found his way into the big show, remaining there long enough to add to the baseball fame of the family.

Ed Deleahant was the first brother to enter the big leagues. He blossomed into a major league star in the late 80's, and from then on until 1903, when he met a tragic death by falling from a bridge. He ranked as one of the greatest batters the game ever produced. He hung up clouding records that remain to this day.

John was the second brother to play major league baseball. Something like 15 years ago, a short time before the death of Ed, he landed on the Cleveland team and played a fine game.

Joe Deleahant was the third. He played with St. Louis for a number of years. Jim was the fourth to enter the big leagues, and Jim lasted a long time as a major leaguer. He was a star with the Detroit Tigers for many years, and ranked as one of the best infielders in the business. In 1914, Jim jumped to the Feds. The other day he was released to the Colonial League, the minor organization of the Feds.

Frank was the fifth Deleahant brother to play in the majors. He was with Cleveland for a time and later played with the Yankees.

And now there are no more Deleahants. The last has passed beyond the big league horizon and the name that once was the most famous in baseball is but a memory.

FLATBUSH.

Flatbush, July 28.—The Rev. George Dangremont of New Hurley, a former pastor here, will preach for us next Sunday. Mrs. Dangremont was the guest of Miss Rachel Osterhoudt for a few days last week, and called on friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Osterhoudt are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby boy at their home last week.

Miss Anna Snyder of Katrine and the Misses Osterhoudt of Kingston were guests of Mrs. Harry Davis last week.

Miss Ethel Swart of Yonkers is visiting her uncle, William H. Swart. Miss Inez Satterlee of Frost Valley is the guest of Elizabeth Hill.

Miss Helen Dangremont of New Hurley is visiting Miss Stella Ketterson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osterhoudt, Miss Sarah Osterhoudt of Mt. Marion and Mrs. Mary TenEyck and daughter, Miss Maye, of Long Island, were guests at the home of Erastus Osterhoudt last Friday.

Miss Ruth Dimeen of New York is staying with Mrs. Harry Davis.

Hunters are Annoying.

Residents of lower Delaware avenue have been greatly annoyed lately by some would-be hunters of round who every evening exercise their hunting dogs in Lindsay's and Gross's woods. The exercising consists in giving the dogs the scent of some rabbits which have their shade in the woods and then letting the dogs run them down. They do no shooting or catching of rabbits but the howling and yelping of the dogs all evening until very annoying to the residents of that section.

MOTORCYCLES ARE UNDER P. O. BAN

Kingston's rural free delivery carriers will not be allowed to use bicycles or motorcycles in delivering mail on their routes after the first of the year, according to a report from the department to Postmaster S. R. Deyo. At the present time there are four free deliveries from the Kingston office. On Route No. 1 the carrier is Ernest J. Ritch, who for some time past has made his deliveries in an automobile. The three carriers on the other routes are holding temporary positions and at the examination held for regular carriers on July 10, forty men took the examination but as yet the result of the examination is not known. The three men who will be appointed will have to deliver the mail on their routes after the first of the year, either by horse and wagon or automobile. The service on Routes Nos. 2, 3 and 4 will be greatly improved when their receiving mail have their boxes numbered. No boxes can be numbered by the post office, however, until the service has been established for two months. It will probably be the first of September before the boxes on the routes are numbered.

Receipts to be Given.

On September 1, sender's receipts for ordinary fourth class parcels will be given at the post office. The purpose of the receipt is to provide senders of fourth class parcels, when desired, a record evidencing their mailing for which a fee of one cent will be charged. The issuance of this receipt does not in any way insure the parcels against loss while in the mails and no receipt is obtained from the addressee upon delivery.

BIG LEAGUE GAMES.

Baseball Scores of Yesterday and Games Scheduled for Today.

Results in National League.
Pittsburgh, 8; New York, 1.
Boston, 4; Brooklyn, 3.
Cincinnati, 4; Philadelphia, 3.
Other teams not scheduled.

Standing in National League.
Philadelphia, 49, 37, 570.
Brooklyn, 48, 40, 545.
Chicago, 43, 43, 500.
Pittsburgh, 44, 44, 500.
Boston, 44, 44, 500.
New York, 41, 43, 488.
St. Louis, 43, 48, 473.
Cincinnati, 36, 49, 421.

Results in American League.
Detroit, 7; New York, 3.
Boston, 3; Chicago, 1.
Washington, 1; Cleveland, 0.
Philadelphia, 6; St. Louis, 4.

Standing in American League.
Boston, 57, 32, 548.
Chicago, 56, 34, 622.
Detroit, 55, 34, 618.
Washington, 45, 44, 506.
New York, 42, 45, 484.
St. Louis, 35, 34, 393.
Cleveland, 34, 55, 382.
Philadelphia, 31, 58, 448.

Results in Federal League.
Brooklyn, 7; Kansas City, 5; first game.
Kansas City, 6; Brooklyn, 2; second game.

Buffalo, 3; Chicago, 2.
Pittsburgh, 2; Baltimore, 1.
Newark, 11; St. Louis, 3.

Standing in Federal League.
Chicago, 52, 39, 571.
Kansas City, 50, 39, 562.
St. Louis, 49, 41, 544.
Pittsburgh, 47, 40, 510.
Newark, 46, 43, 517.
Brooklyn, 42, 52, 447.
Buffalo, 42, 53, 442.
Baltimore, 33, 56, 371.

Results in International League.
Buffalo, 8; Jersey City, 6.
Harrisburg, 6; Rochester, 3; first game.
Harrisburg, 7; Rochester, 6; second game, 10 innings.

Providence, 1; Toronto, 0; 10 innings.
Richmond, 7; Montreal, 4.

Standing in International League.
Providence, 52, 25, 575.
Buffalo, 44, 32, 579.
Harrisburg, 43, 38, 531.
Montreal, 42, 39, 519.
Richmond, 38, 45, 458.
Rochester, 37, 44, 457.
Toronto, 35, 48, 422.
Jersey City, 31, 51, 378.

National League.
Brooklyn at Pittsburgh, threatening.
Boston at Cincinnati, cloudy.
Philadelphia at St. Louis, clear.

American League.
Detroit at New York, cloudy.
Chicago at Boston, clear.
St. Louis at Philadelphia, fair.
Cleveland at Washington, clear.

Federal League.
Baltimore at Pittsburgh, threatening, 2 games.
Brooklyn at Kansas City, clear, 2 games.
Newark at St. Louis, clear.

International League.
Jersey City at Buffalo, cloudy, 2 games.
Harrisburg at Rochester, clear.

Richmond at Montreal, clear.
Providence at Toronto, rain, 2 games.

State League.
Albany at Syracuse, cloudy, 2 games.
Utica at Troy, clear, 2 games.
Milbra at Scranton, clear, 2 games.

Wilkes-Barre at Binghamton, cloudy.

Malaria's Toll in India.
Malaria causes more sickness and death than any other single disease in India.

STATE PLANS TO SELL APPLES

The state department of foods and markets has issued the following address to the apple growers of New York state:

You are producing a quality of apples second to none in the world; but inferior apples from other sections get the preference in both movement and prices in the New York market. When large dealers advance money on inferior apples they are not disposed to encourage the sale of your fruit, until the western apples are marketed and the money advanced is again in the pocket of the dealer, with the added bonus.

The consumption of New York state apples is restricted in the early winter by high retail prices. This causes a sluggish market and keeps wholesale prices low. In the meantime dealers get out and buy at the low quotations from producers, and prices begin to stiffen as soon as the bulk of the fruit is out of the hands of producers.

To overcome these conditions you need an open market from one end of the season to the other to establish a price. When this price is established in New York, it will also be the price for the other cities and for local sales. Every grower who sell on the ground will appreciate the value of such a quotation. The prices in New York are the prices for the whole country. You are entitled to the price apples will bring you on an open market, when sold subject to the law of supply and demand, without manipulation or prejudice. No one can ask more. No grower or shipper can be satisfied with less.

The New York state department of foods and markets is making arrangements to open a free auction market in the city of New York, which will establish an honest price for New York state apples for every day from October 1st to the close of the season. Every day during the season it is proposed to auction apples in the heart of the city's apple market. This will establish the price for New York state apples. No commission house will dare return less than the auction price to the shipper. There will be protests and attempts at manipulation for a short time, but ultimately all apples in the New York market will be sold at auction, and you will get more money for them.

These apples will be sold in the morning, and an account of sales, with check, will be sent the way to the shipper before night. The auctioneer will be licensed by the department, and a representative of the state will take a record of every sale. The returns will be official. For the first time in the history of the state apple shippers will be sure of a square deal in the New York market.

One of the essentials of a successful auction market is a steady supply during the season. Buyers must know that the goods will be there and that the sale will take place. To accomplish these desired results it will be necessary to have absolute control of 800 car loads of graded apples. They may be either boxed or barreled, and graded under the state law. To make the market a success and get the right prices from the start, the trade must know that the supply will be regular and sure. The state will see that they are sold on the square, and that the shipper gets what the buyers pay, less the freight and the actual selling charges.

The department proposes to increase the consumption of state apples in the New York city market by canvassing the retail trade and influencing the retailers to keep a constant supply of state apples on sale at reasonable prices, and to make proper display of them. Attractive illustrated signs will be furnished the retailers to advertise New York state apples. It is believed that apples packed in cheap peck cartons, in various grades and also in ungraded varieties, would greatly increase the consumption in New York and plans are maturing to try this out during the coming season. An effort will be made to find a market for apples that have been rejected on the ground. How many barrels of apples will you pledge on these terms to be sold on this plan in this open auction market?

UNION CENTER.

Union Center, July 28.—Miss Ethel Coutant, Miss Mary Burger and Miss Myrtle Ronk, were out driving Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eckert and daughter Harriet, were out for a drive Saturday evening.

Josephine Terpening, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Terpening.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Freer spent Saturday with his sister, Mrs. J. Wells and Sunday with his brother, Lemuel Freer.

Mrs. Guyllus spent Saturday in Kingston.

Walter Brown, Sr., who has employment in Poughkeepsie spent the week end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren were in Kingston Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Schoonmaker, Mr. and Mrs. A. Eckert and daughter Harriet, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. F. Van Wagenen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page of Ulster Park called at Mrs. L. Van Keuren's Saturday evening.

Mrs. Herman Bunje has returned. Her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Behrend Bunje of New York city accompanied her home.

Mrs. Harry Schenck and son Jewell, Mrs. Curtiss and son Allen, Mrs. Victor Latendoff and William V. Dubois drove to Kingston Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ains is entertaining her niece.

Mrs. Alfred Van Aken is entertaining company the week end.

Mrs. Kate Van Etten called at Mrs. Susan Terwilliger's Saturday afternoon.

R. A. Cortelyou has returned to Pennsylvania, where he is employed after spending the week end with Mrs. R. A. Cortelyou at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Mattison and son Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. M. Soper and sons Chester and George, went

Better Store Service Brings Increased Business

We're Not Satisfied

Unless you are both pleased and satisfied.

S. E. Eighmey

Just Tell Us

What you need and we'll do our best—always.

Send Us Your Mail Orders

And we'll select the goods you order with painstaking care to assure you perfect satisfaction. We pay delivery charges on all orders amounting to $2.00 or more.

Phone in Your Order.

Uncle Sam is Our Delivery Man

All mail or phone orders are given the promptest attention to assure the earliest possible delivery. If you want to take advantage of the money saving opportunities that this store affords and can't come, just phone or write to us, and then watch how satisfactorily we serve you.

The Progressive S. E. EIGHMEY The Progressive
Downtown Store 26 BROADWAY, RONDOUT
Downtown Store

"Get Up" and Get

Don't you back up or stop until you've tried LIBERTY. It's the one perfect tobacco for the big, two-fisted, out-of-doors man who wants a rich, mellow tobacco for both chewing and smoking.

You get hold of LIBERTY. Note the honest sweetness of this pure Kentucky leaf, aged for three to five years, to bring out all its mellow fragrance and flavor. LIBERTY has the genuine snap and taste that you want in tobacco.

LIBERTY Long Cut Tobacco is purposely made up for the sturdy man who is hungry for a real man's tobacco. For many years all sorts of brands have tried to beat out LIBERTY but the old he-boy is still the king-brand of them all.

Nothing fancy about the LIBERTY package—we put all the cost into the tobacco. As you say of a horse, "he's all horse"—so we say of LIBERTY—"it's all tobacco."

Hitch up with LIBERTY for a week's trial, and you and LIBERTY will always pull together like a well-matched team.

Sold everywhere in 5c packages.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

SPECIAL ONE DOLLAR DAY SALE! WEDNESDAY, JULY 28

Sterling Silver Spoon, $1.25, today $1.00
Cut Glass Nappy, $1.25, today $1.00
Baby Ring, set with pearls, $1.25, today $1.00
Cuff Buttons, $1.25, today $1.00
Butter Knife and Sugar Shell, $1.50, today $1.00
10 Souvenir Spoons of different states $1.00

OPPENHEIMER BROS. Inc.

578 Broadway
Kingston, N. Y.
Near West Shore Crossing

Scientific Child.
Robert, the four-year-old son of a scientist man had lived in the country most of his short life. One day a caller, wishing to make friends with the little fellow, took him on his knee and asked: "Are there any fairies in your woods here, Robert?" "No," replied Robert promptly, "but there are plenty of edible fungi."—Youth's Companion.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given according to law, to all persons having claims against Isaac N. Weiner, late of the city of Kingston, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Carrie B. Weiner, the executrix of the estate of said deceased, at 725 Broadway, city of Kingston, in the said county of Ulster, S. Y., on or before the 1st day of October, 1915.
Dated, March 26, 1915.
CARRIE B. WEINER,
Executrix of the Estate of Isaac N. Weiner, Decedent.
H. H. Flemming, Attorney, 222 Ferry street, Kingston, N. Y.